HOOVER GETTING DEMOCRAT'S GOATS DECLARES ROGERS

(Special To The News)

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Oct. 1.—Saw that polo game Saturday in New York. That was the greatest game ever played; the best men and the best horses in the whole two Americas. Don't miss the next one Wednesday, no matter where you have to come from.

Al made one great mistake in his prohibition speech Saturday night. He said, "We can't expect anything from the Republicans."

Well, I don't know how we could possibly expect more than we have, unless a man has unlimited expectations, but Herb won't answer. He is pulling a Coolidge and getting the Democrats' goat.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

PA NEWC OBSERVES

New Castle and Lawrence county delegates will watch the success of the state Sabbath school convention at Philadelphia next week with more than usual interest. Recalling the remarkable convention held in New Castle at the Cathedral one year ago, when a high spot for all time in state conventions of this nature was set, it will be a matter of interest to know if the Philadelphia gathering exceeds the epochal event in the home town of State President Percy L. Craig.

New Castle Community Chest workers have been particularly favored in the acceptance of Robert C. Love to head the campaign to fill the chest this year. Under his capable leadership there is assurance that the drive will be a successful one.

While there have been a number of frosts during the past few nights, the leaves in the woodland have not as yet turned to any great extent. But they are beginning. In a week or two the forests will be multi-colored.

And don't forget that Saturday of this week is the third and final day for registration of voters in New Castle. If you haven't registered, don't fail to arrange to attend to this duty Saturday. Registration hours are from seven to nine, from 11 to two, and from four to 10.

Football started off with a bang Saturday all over this section of the country and a few other sections, too. All of the local high schools and colleges started in action. From the indications pointed out in the actions of the several teams in this district it looks as though we are going to see some keen football in this district, both college and high school.

New Castle's growth has been greater in the past few years than most third-class cities, according to the government recent survey. Despite their harsh criticisms, those persons who bemoan the fact that they must cast their lot in New Castle are glad to return to the city after they have spent a short time in some other third-class city.

Evangelism of the conservative type is being heard down at the newly erected tabernacle on South Mill and Friendship streets by hundreds of persons each evening. Rev. C. H. Erickson, a young chap hardly nosing his thirties as yet, is doing the preaching. His services are drawing many persons from all parts of the city. A few extra street cars in the vicinity would do the people a stroke of fortune.

Pa Newc observes: horse and buggy parked on Washington street near Mill that was causing much comment by passersby—youngsters coming back to town with chestnuts. They report a small crop—that the cool weather has not diminished the Saturday night crowds on Washington street—that today is October 1, and winter will soon be pelting down on our unsuspecting heads.

It's the women again. You probably know what I mean. Politics again and the women are having another meeting and not a cheep from the man's side of the argument. It has been an argument by the anti-suffragettes that the women do not take sufficient interest, do not enter the spirit of the campaign, and so on and so forth—you know the usual wowsering. Surely such an argument cannot be advanced in the city. The women have done the greater part of the campaigning and the work, and it's not a woman's cam-

Six In Wedding Party, Two Men And Four Women, Are Instantly Killed

Believe Driver Of Machine Misjudged Speed Of Onrushing Engine

(International News Service)

BRISTOL, Pa., Oct. 1.—Six persons, two men and four women, members of a wedding party bound from Bayonne, N. J., to Philadelphia, were killed when their automobile was struck by a fast Pennsylvania railroad express train during the night.

Two of the victims are believed to be Lester Seidel, 32, of Bayonne, driver of the car, and I. W. Lees, also of Bayonne.

The women were identified today as:

Mrs. Catherine Riley, 54, Marian and Anna Riley and Sarah Bruch, all of Bayonne.

Identification Made

The identification of the two was made by Robert Boss of Bayonne, who said he had loaned the machine to Seidel to take his friends to the wedding.

The train, the crack Crescent Limited, bound south, was traveling at such a high rate of speed the wreckage of the machine and the bodies were strewn along the roadbed for more than a mile. The bodies were so badly mangled it is impossible to identify them, police say.

Police have not determined just how the accident happened, but believe the driver misjudged the speed of the express at the crossing.

AMAZING LABOR SUPPORT IS PLEDGED TO HOOVER

Workers Want No Experiment In Government At Expense Of Jobs

Bulk Of LaFollette Vote Will Go To Hoover, It Is Now Evident

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—Herbert Hoover has gathered an amazing harvest of support from labor leaders as a result of his recent "bread and butter" speech in Newark, N. J., it was announced at Republican headquarters today.

A flood of congratulatory messages, pledging their loyalty to Hoover, began to flow into the Hoover headquarters the day following his address, and the tide has continued unabated ever since.

Among labor leaders, whose decla-

Governor Smith Back In New York

MORE ADDRESSES ARE ON SCHEDULE

(International News Service)

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 1. — His Western campaign behind him and his East ahead, Governor Smith came back into home territory today.

Governor Smith arrived in Rochester at 9:30 a. m., to attend the Democratic state convention. He was welcomed by a large delegation of New York Democrats.

For the rest of this week the brown derby is to hang on familiar pegs.

Five weeks remain before election day on November 6. Four of these weeks will be filled with hard, strenuous campaigning by the Democratic nominee. Chicago and St. Louis are to be visited before October ends, and there will be an excursion into the border states. But most of the time will be spent in the East, along the wet and populous Atlantic seaboard.

Governor Smith returned from the West satisfied in the main with his two weeks journey through the grain belt—where the corn grows tall and where political insurgency grows apace with the corn. He believes he has won thousands of votes to his cause. He evades, however, any definite predictions.

While he consistently refuses to embark upon the sea of speculation, the Governor is very confident that the goal he set out to achieve when he left Albany two weeks ago has been attained.

Walmo Is Visited By Southern Bound Wild Geese Today

A drove of wild geese numbering hundreds and uttering their cries so loudly that folks were awakened passed over Walmo early this morning, according to a report received from Mrs. Harvey Brest of that place.

The geese, numbering hundreds passed over Walmo flying low and all headed south. Later a few stragglers came scurrying along in an attempt to catch up with the main group of the geese.

Residents of Walmo were of the opinion that the wild geese hovering near the ground made a beautiful sight as they flew over the district.

Forty Officers To Face Trials In Philadelphia

District Attorney Hopes For Indictments By Grand Jury Today

EXPECTS TO OPEN TRIALS TUESDAY

Bitter Legal Battle Looked For; City Prepares To Convict Officers

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 1.—Some of the bitterest legal battles this city has ever seen were predicted today when the policemen under arrest on extortion charges as a result of the special grand jury investigation come up for trial.

The first of the trials are expected to start tomorrow is District Attorney John Monaghan can get the October grand jury to return indictments at its first session today.

Forty Under Arrest.

Approximately 40 police officers and policemen including three captains are either under arrest or suspended from the force as a result of the corruption disclosed by the grand jury. Many of these it was reported today would seek a change of venue based on the grounds the local courts and juries would be prejudiced by the

BANK EXAMINERS FIND SHORTAGES

Also Implicated By Negro Robber As Accomplice In Burglary

(International News Service)

OIL CITY, Pa., Oct. 1.—Edwin L. Flick, cashier of the Citizens' Bank of Pleasantville, which was robbed and set on fire early last week, who is being held in jail on charges of being an accessory in burglary, larceny and arson, today faces additional charges of embezzlement and misapplication of bank funds on 14 counts.

The amount involved is $4,789.60. The embezzlement and misapplication of bank funds charges were made against Flick following an examination of the bank's books by State Bank Examiner John T. Stewart. When arraigned before Alderman Daniel McGready, Flick entered a plea of not guilty. He is being held under $10,000 bail pending a hearing on October 9.

Suspected Member Of Ranieri Kidnap Gang Is Arrested

Gary, Indiana, Police Arrest Paul Prepanpi On Acting Orders

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—Sudden seizure of Paul Prepanpi at Gary Ind., today on instrusctions of the state's attorney's office here presented a mystifying twist to swift developments in the rounding up of a gang of Mafia extortionists and kidnapers who held Little Billy Ranieri captive for $60,000 ransom.

With the confession from Andrew Cappellano arrested at the home of a relative in Herrin Ill., that he was the proprietor of the mysterious "kidnapers' farm" near Bourbonnais, Ill., where Billy was held and the arrest of John Perconti of Joliet, partially identified in a cell here as one of the kidnapers, it was rumored that Prepanpi was the other kidnaper sought, although attaches of the state's attorney's office refused to confirm or deny the rumor.

Twenty Two Are Killed In State Auto Crashes Over Week-End Period

(International News Service)

Twenty-two persons were killed and 39 injured in Pennsylvania over the week-end as motorists flocked to the highways, taking advantage of the crisp fall motoring days before winter sets in, a survey by International News Service revealed today.

Eastern Pennsylvania took the heaviest toll with ten persons killed and 16 injured. Six were killed at Bristol, and two were killed and six injured at Bangor. In Philadelphia two persons were killed and seven hurt. Riegelsville, Allentown and Wernersville, each reported one person injured.

Central Pennsylvania reported five persons killed and twelve injured, at Liverpool, Dauphin county, two persons were killed and three hurt. Lancaster reported five injured.

At Hazelton, two were hurt and at Waynesboro, one was reported dead and two injured.

Western Pennsylvania's toll was seven killed and 11 injured. Pittsburgh tolled the heaviest in the western part of the state with four killed and eight injured. New Castle reported one killed.

Men Who Killed Hold-Up Victim Pay Extreme Penalty At Rockview

CRIME OCCURRED AT CHESTER, PENNA.

(International News Service)

ROCKVIEW PENITENTIARY, BELLEFONTE, Pa., Oct. 1.—Slowly repeating the lord's prayer as it was intoned by the Prison Chaplain, William P. Phillips and Jesse O. Parker, both of Chester, Pa., were electrocuted here early today for the murder of Norman B. Gibson during a holdup attempt.

Phillips, the first to cross the grey prison corridor to the death chamber, was pronounced dead at 7:09 a. m., by Prison Physician C. J. Newcombe, seven minutes after the first contact was applied, while Parker was pronounced dead at 7:18, five minutes after Robert Elliott, state executioner first pulled the fatal switch on him.

Phillips and Parker paid with their lives for the slaying of Gibson as the latter was returning from his fiancee's home at Lenni.

The two men, with George Weir, alleged accomplice, were tried for the crime, Weir escaping with a sentence of life imprisonment, while Phillips and Parker were given the extreme penalty.

Bodies Are Claimed

The two bodies were claimed by Bellefonte undertakers on orders from relatives in Chester, where they will be removed for burial.

Phillips began the death march promptly at 7 a. m. Supported on either side by guards, the doomed man followed Chaplain P. M. Osborne into the chamber, repeating in a low voice the Lord's prayer. His lips moved as the leather mask was strapped on his face, but the words could not be heard.

At 7:02 the first charge was sent

Democrats Send Out Many Speakers

ROBINSON ON WAY TO COAST

By LAWRENCE SULLIVAN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Turning into the decisive month of the presidential contest, the Democratic managers threw their campaign machinery into high today with announcement of itineraries for more than 150 nationally known speakers.

They will invade 26 states this week. The speakers' corps will be steadily increased daily until mid-October, when the maximum windup program will find 250 campaigners in the field in 48 states, according to Senator Milard E. Tydings, of Maryland, chairman of the National Speakers' Bureau.

Robinson at Wichita

Senator Robinson, already launched upon the tour which is to take him to the Pacific Coast, invaded the home state of the Republican vice-presidential nominee today with a speech scheduled to night at Wichita.

Governor Smith's second swing around the circle, meanwhile, was under discussion at Rochester, N. Y., where Chairman John J. Raskob conferred with the presidential candidate on final details of the itinerary.

Governor Albert C. Ritchie of Maryland, himself a candidate before the Houston convention will broadcast his first campaign speech tonight. Former Governor John M. Parker of Louisiana, one-time ardent Bull-Moose supporter of Theodore Roosevelt, will carry the Smith Robinson banner through Illinois this week, where he will share the stage with former Senator Gilbert M. Hitchcock of Nebraska.

Ellwood City Man, Walking On Road, Is Killed By Auto

Thomas B. Haswell, 43, Dies After Being Run Down On Harlansburg Road

DRIVER OF CAR IS HELD BY OFFICIALS

County Officers Locate Driver After Long Investigation Sunday

Thomas B. Haswell, 43, foreman in the Shelby Tube Company plant at Ellwood City, was struck and killed on the Harlansburg road Saturday night about midnight by an automobile driven by Charles Thompson, 27, of Croton avenue, this city. While Mr. Thompson stopped after the accident and assisted in placing Mr. Haswell in a car to be brought to the hospital, he failed to report the accident, and on Sunday removed the license plates from his car and cut the radiator with a hatchet in order to straighten up a dinge, authorities report.

Mr. Thompson when apprehended by Sheriff H. M. Reynolds last night, told the sheriff, Coroner J. P. Caldwell and State Patrolman Davis that he had intended to report the accident Sunday evening, but had been so nervous all day that he could not leave the house. The accident happened about 500 feet east of where the macadam and concrete join on the Harlansburg road.

Mr. Haswell, who was killed, his wife, Gertrude Haswell, daughter, Mrs. Leha Shira, daughter, Mildred Haswell, and A. O. Anderson of Ellwood City, went out for a drive Saturday evening. They drove first to Prospect, Butler county, and from there to Rock Springs, near Harlansburg, where a dance was in progress. They stopped at the dance, where they remained until about 11:30.

Started to Walk to New Castle

When they were ready to go home Mr. Haswell could not be found. James E. Shira saw him leaving the grounds about 10:30 and it was presumed that he had started to walk to New Castle, as he had seemed im-

Mother And Four Children Perish When Home Burns

Mrs. Minnie Shadle And Four Children Die In Flames At McElhatten, Pa.

(International News Service)

LOCKHAVEN, Pa., Oct. 1.—Efforts were made today to determine the cause of the blaze which cost the lives of five persons at McElhattan, about five miles from here, early yesterday.

Mrs. Minnie Shadle and her four children—three little girls and an 11-year-old boy, were the victims, all being burned to death when the fire destroyed the Shadle home.

The blaze was discovered early yesterday, but before the alarm could be spread the house was engulfed in flames. McElhattan, a small village, has no fire department.

The choicest tidbit is close at hand, the annual tilt for the baseball rag, the yearly race for supremacy, the battle to own the world's champion flag. Who will win it, I wish I knew, Cards or Yankees, well make your guess, and will the fans be interested, you know the answer is always yes. Hoyt or Sherdel, or Bottomley, Ruth or Lazzerri, who'll be the star, who will the lad be to win the tilt, who will be socking the apple far. Cards or Yankees, well take your choice, your guess or my guess will likely do, for the series will go to the lucky squad, the weather is warmer, and sixty-two.

TALES OF RETURNING AUTO TOURISTS

ANCIENT CATHEDRAL

Editor News:

On my trip to the southland I visited a Mexican cathedral over 200 years old. It would probably seat 600 to 800 and is a marvel of architecture and equipment.

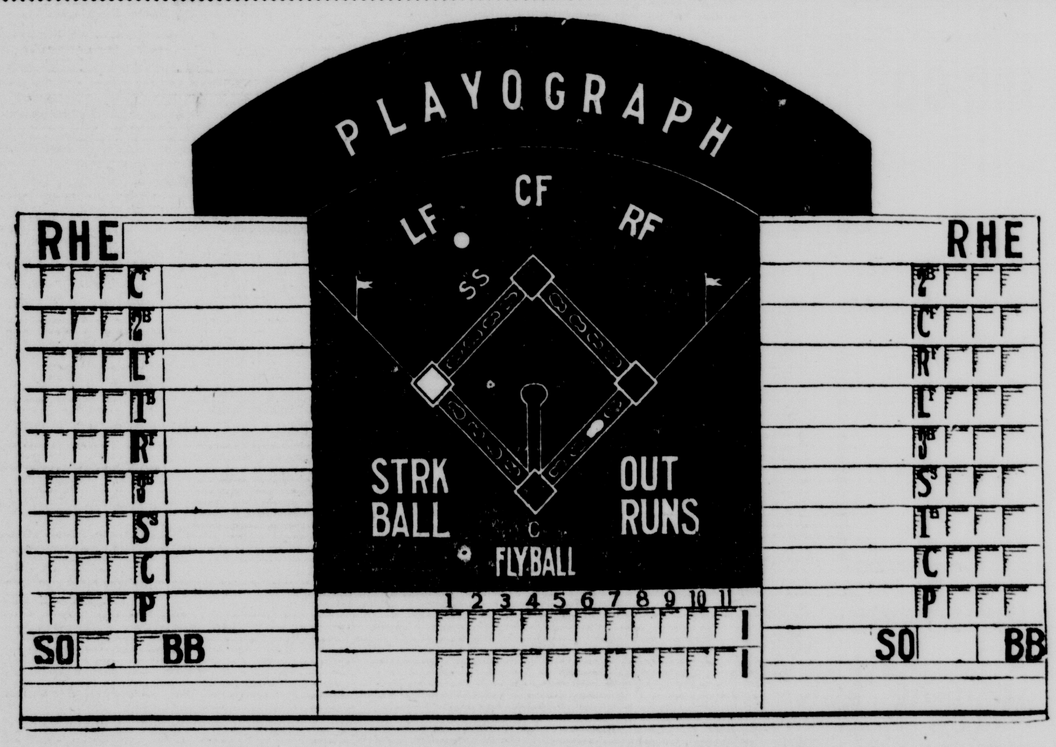

A person wonders at a church in our western hemisphere being furnished with such equipment, built so long ago and in such a high state of preservation. Of course the dry climate would assist in this feature.

This cathedral is located at Matamoras, Mex., and is a stone structure. The sad part of it is that at present it is standing idle. The doors are always open but worship is prohibited. There was only one person around and I asked her if there was any prospect of a settlement with the government and she said NO.

SEE WORLD'S SERIES GAMES AT THE NEWS

No need to go to New York or St. Louis this year for the world's series games between the New York Yankees and the St. Louis Cardinals. Following the custom of the past 12 years The New Castle News will show the series play by play and by the Public Address system.

This year's service should be better than any heretofore. The News has secured a Playograph board, larger and more efficient than the previous board, and this board will show the games in detail as they are run off. In addition, a Public Address system will be installed and each play described as it comes from the special telegraph wire which will come from the playing field to the office of The New Castle News.

Reserved seats will be the same price as they have always been, free as air. Every fan who wishes to see and hear the game as it is played can do so my coming down to Mercer street on the days the games are played.

John L. Laux will start erection of the new Playograph board on Tuesday morning and by Thursday, the first game, everything will be in readiness.

Parking of autos will be banned in North Mercer street from the Penn theatre building to the postoffice corner during the afternoons the games are played.

Still Need Large Red Cross Sum

Contributions Here Total About $1,400; Urge Immediate Response

LARGE SUM NEEDED FOR RELIEF WORK

Local Red Cross officials today chalked up an additional $47 to the national organization's fund for the relief and rehabilitation of the people living in the hurricane-wracked sections of Porto Rico and Florida, an amount which augments the grand total already forwarded to Washington close to the $1,400 mark.

Saturday's contributions were rather large. However, response to the needy cause was not wide-spread. National officers have wired urgent appeals for gifts of money or clothing and the people of the county in turn have been notified. The local organization's quota has been raised from the original $1,000 to the $10,000 level. An impetus in the fund will be necessary to reach the suggested goal.

Red Cross offices in the Temple building are open daily and contributions are gladly received throughout the day. Clothing for the striken ones is readily acceptable—that of light weight material being preferred.

Public Hearing On Channel Lines Of Shenango River

Employes of the city engineers department today stated that there will be held at 10 a. m. October 10 in council chambers, the City Hall, a public hearing to review and discuss the proposed channel lines along the Shenango river in the city. All parties who are interested will probably be present to present claims and views relative to the lines.

COMMISSIONERS BACK FROM STATE MEETING

County Commissioners Calvin Boyd and Philip Elder have returned from Allentown where they attended a state meeting of county commissioners. They report a good convention. Topics discussed related to the duties of commissioners and legislation that would be of advantage in the conduct of the office. This afternoon a contract for a bridge across the Connoquenessing at Wurtemburg will be let. The bids were submitted during the absence of Commissioners Boyd and Elder.

paign, either. The two parties of men must be permitting the women to do the post-season work and saving their energies for the last week of the intense scramble.

It may be aesthetic development, it might be education in the drama, it could be an extra smattering of religion, it should be an awakening of the theatergoing public to resent the cheap profanity of some of the modern slapsticking comedians, but it might be a dozen of other things and still be right. However, what Pa Newc means is that fewer laughs seem to come from an audience when some fourth-rate comedian cracks some cheap, tawdry profanity for effect.

Pa Newc is a late "stayer up" at night for the simple reason that he hates to go to bed for fear of missing something. He has noticed in his perambulations about the downtown streets that about the same crowd of fellows are always out. It appears that always the same people do not go to bed early and not one person taking his night out and then the next and so on. Their motto seems to be that early to bed may be all right for some, but who wants to be healthy, wealthy and wise?

There is a tame squirrel cavorting about St. Joseph's church at the present time. It is having a great time among the trees of the vicinity and seems perfectly delighted with its new location. There is no objection to the squirrel making its home in that district, but the fact that it is there was reported to the police, so that any person having lost a tame squirrel, might know where to locate it.

There are two sides to every question, both of which very often are entirely wrong.

Small Damage Is Done By Fire At Johnson Bronze

Sprinklers Practically Extinguish Blaze; Damage Put At $300

A cigar or a cigarette is thought to be the cause of a fire which did damage estimated at $300 to the property of the Johnson Bronze Company on South Mill street, Saturday evening.

The alarm sounded at 10:05 p. m., companies one and five, together with the aerial truck, answered. When they arrived at the scene of the blaze, they found that the fire had started in the lavatory on the second floor of the old, wooden structure. Two automatic sprinklers had burst into operation putting out most of the flames. However, one line of hose was used by the firemen. Both companies were back in service at midnight.

Deny Charges Of Theft Of Money

Albert Barnes and Della Barnes, colored, were arrested Sunday after an investigation of the alleged "rolling" of Dode Elliott for seventy dollars on Saturday evening at the place of Mary Mitchell, colored, rear of Home street. This morning, Barnes paid a fine of $10 while the Barnes woman was discharged.

According to the report made Sunday morning by Mr. Elliott after receiving his pay Saturday, he purchased two live chickens and went to the place of Mary Mitchell. Della Barnes who was there went out and purchased some moonshine.

He took one drink of the stuff and never came to from the effects until Sunday morning when he woke up at his home. His money, amounting to $70 was missing.

Officers Letera and Thompson were detailed and went with him to the Mitchell place where the two chickens were found but the theft of the money was denied. Hall was arrested in the vicinity when he broke a bottle of moonshine in the street on seeing the officers.

Next to a secret the hardest thing to keep is a beautiful complexion.

Walter Mechling Buried.

Funeral services for Walter Peter Mechling were held Saturday morning from the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Mahon rear 831 Franklin avenue. The pallbearers were uncles of the deceased. Burial was made in St. Mary's cemetery.

Mr. Hartsell Funeral

Funeral services for the late McClure Hartsell of East Brook will take place Tuesday, Oct. 2, at one p. m. from the home of his daughter, Mrs. A. Y. McConaghy, of Hickory township, with Rev. J. W. St. Clair of the East Brook United Presbyterian church officiating. Burial will be made in the Plaingrove U. P. cemetery.

Mr. Hartsell's death occurred Saturday afternoon at 1:30 at Mrs. McConahy's home after an extended illness of 11 months.

He was born at Easton, Clarion county, Pa., July 7, 1853, a son of Elisha and Svrenia Hartsell. He had been a resident of Lawrence county for 60 years and previous to his illness was engaged in farming. He lived at Plaingrove for 25 years.

Mr. Hartsell was a member of the East Brook United Presbyterian church and the Royal Arcanium lodge. He was one of the well-known and highly esteemed men of the community where he lived for many years.

Besides his widow, Matilda Ellen Stuart Hartsell, to whom he was united in marriage 49 years ago, he leaves two daughters, Mrs. A. Y. McConaghy of East Brook and Mrs. Charles Brenneman of Volant, and one son, John Hartsell, of New Castle. He also leaves one sister, Mrs. Eva Lauer, of New Lexington, O., and a half-brother, Richard P. Van Warmer. A daughter, Ruth Hartsell, preceded him in death some time ago.

Mrs. Dovis Buried.

Funeral services for the late Mrs. Lavinah Iddings Davis widow of James Davis took place from the Savanah Methodist Episcopal church Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The church was filled with many relatives and friends both old and young of the deceased. The casket was banked with a profusion of beautiful flowers expressing sympathy and esteem.

Rev. Claude Downs pastor of the church officiated assisted by Rev. J. L. Petrie, pastor of the Grace M. E. church of this city. Burial was made in the church cemetery and the pallbearers were Samuel Badger, Dr. J. O. Brown, Charles Davis, Elijah Davis, Paul Patterson and John Davis.

Mrs. Cornelia C. Crawford.

Mrs. Cornelia Clark Crawford, aged 65 years, wife of T. Porter Crawford, died at the family home in Big Beaver township Saturday evening of complications.

Although Mrs. Crawford had been in ill health for several months, her death was very unexpected and comes as a distinct shock to her immediate family and friends.

She was a member of the Presbyterian church at Moravia and had always taken an active interest in the church and various organizations. She was one of the best loved and highly respected women in the neighborhood in which she lived.

Besides her husband she leaves one sister, Mrs. Arabella Price of Youngstown, and two brothers, Calhoun and Judd Clark, both of Iowa.

Funeral services will be conducted Tuesday, October 2, at 2:30 p. m. from her late home with Rev. Henderson officiating. Burial in Oak Park cemetery.

Mrs. Laura Belle Haybarger.

Mrs. Laura Belle Haybarger, aged 45, wife of David Haybarger, died at her home 901 Chestnut street, Saturday, September 29 at 4 p. m. after an illness of eight years. Mrs. Haybarger was born in this city in October, 1882, the daughter of John and May McFarland Muser. She had spent her entire life here. She had been married twenty-nine years. She was a member of the First Christian church. She leaves her husband, and the following children, Harry, William, Sadiem David Jr., John, Anna Belle, Mary, Grace, Ralph and Joseph and one sister, Mrs. Ann Hover of this city. Funeral services will be held Tuesday, October 2 at 2:30 p. m. with Rev. J. B. Porter, pastor of the Central Christian church, at the family residence, 901 Chestnut street. Interment will be made in Oak Park cemetery.

Michaele Faella.

Michaele Faella, aged 12, son of Nick and Rose Faella, of 104 Center street, died at the New Castle hospital, Sunday at 5:35 a. m. as a result of complications that followed an operation for Appendicitis. He was born in this city, July 13, 1916. He attended St. Joseph's Parochial school. He is survived by his parents and the following brothers and sisters, Augostine, Nick Jr., Paul, Henry, Mrs. Dan Fulvi, Mrs. Dominick Menici, Stella, Frances and Lucy. Funeral services will be held at St. Vitus church, Tuesday, October 2, at 9 a. m. with Rev. Fr. Patrick DiRanna in charge. Interment will be made in St. Vitus cemetery.

John A. McConnell.

John A. McConnell, aged 84, resident of East street for the past three years, until he went to spend the summer with relatives in Butler county, died Sunday morning, September 30, at the New Castle hospital following a brief illness. Me McConnell was born in Muddycreek township, Butler county, July 22, 1844, the son of David and Mary McKee McConnell.

His father moved to Butler township, Butler county, where he resided until his young manhood. After this he resided in various parts of the country, going first to the south, then to Canton, O., where he engaged in the contracting business for a number of years and finally to San Francisco, Cal., where he resided for about thirty-five years.

During his residence there, he made two trips to Alaska during the first gold excitement there. He also lived for a short time in the Hawaiian Islands. About six years ago, he came east, residing in Butler for a time and for the past three years in this city. His wife, who was Abigal Patterson, died some years ago in San Francisco, Cal. Mr. McConnell was a member of a family of ten children, and is survived by one brother, James M. McConnell of Butler. Funeral services will be held from the Offutt Funeral home, 211 North Mercer street, this city, on Tuesday, October 2, at 1 p. m. with Dr. C. B. Wingred, pastor of the Central Presbyterian church, in charge. Burial will be made in North cemetery, Butler.

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 1.—Optimistic concerning general business conditions despite the presidential year bugaboo, delegates to the 54th annual American Bankers' Association convention assembled here today for sectional meetings prior to the formal opening of the three-day conference tomorrow. About 4,000 members are already here with 3,000 more expected.

Greens Are Seeded On New Golf Course

Thirteen Greens Completed; Will Seed Fairways In Near Future

Thirteen greens have been seeded and much of the preparatory work to the fairways has been done at the New Castle municipal golf course located on the old city poor farm an the New Castle-Ellwood City road according to W. J. Offutt one of the members of the golf course association.

It is expected that some of the fairways will be seeded during the next few days states Mr. Offutt and that the course will be ready for play by July 1, 1928. Only five greens will remain to be seeded in the spring and Mr. Offutt explains that the work to these greens would be finished this fall but for the fact that they are on the 30 acres which was purchased recently and will not be in the possession of the golf course association for some time.

The old house on the poor farm site will be used for a club house as well as a caddy house, Mr. Offutt states.

MATRIX SHOES FOR WOMEN
Exquisite in Style—Unequalled for Comfort

At last a shoe that is fashioned in the latest dictates of the mode, yet made to fit perfectly and give absolute comfort. This combination of style and comfort is possible only in Matrix Shoes because they have the exclusive moulded innersoles that
FIT the BOTTOM of the FOOT
The most stylish patterns may now feel as comfortable from the very first step as an old "broken in" shoe. The moulded sole does away with the necessity of pounding your tender foot into hard unyielding leather until the shoes are broken in, your foot broken up and the shape of the shoe ruined. In Matrix Shoes your arches are held naturally and every graceful curve of the bottom of the foot is properly fitted, from the start.
Let us show you Matrix Shoes. They were selected for our customers only after a diligent search for the newest and finest modern footwear. Matrix shoes are the last word in the art of shoemaking. There is a stylish Matrix shown for every costume and for every occasion.

You will experience a new comfort in Matrix Shoes. And you will marvel that a shoe so comfortable can be so stylish.

LET US HAVE VOTING MACHINES

FOURTEEN proposed amendments to the Pennsylvania constitution will clog up the November ballot. One of these amendments—the thirteenth—is of vital importance to the entire state. It permits any county, city, borough or township to install voting machines at the option of such governmental divisions. There is nothing obligatory about it.

In numerous country districts they may not be needed, but they certainly are needed in most if not all cities. They make for honest balloting, honest because of automatic counting of the ballots, and for economy. While it may be possible to "beat" them in instances by corruptionists, they nevertheless afford an additional safeguard. They are accurate, and the result of the voting in a division is made known immediately after the polls are closed. There can be no holding back of returns for manipulation purposes.

New York City has thoroughly tested them, and in the coming election will establish a voting machine in every one of the 2845 districts. If the amendment is adopted most Pennsylvania cities will follow New York's example. It should be.

CHANGING THE BAIT

ANYONE keeping an eye on the foreign news can—especially if he has a sense of humor—anticipate just what part in the concert of nations the United States will next be asked to take.

Only a little while ago Uncle Sam was a Shylock. Now he is a world benefactor.

Not long since, economic conditions in Europe were represented as somewhat more than bad—which was partly true. Now conditions are being represented as not only on the mend but almost mended—which also is true, partly.

Why should these great and heartening changes have come about? We, as a nation, are acting precisely as we acted at the zenith of our unpopularity abroad. Nothing of tremendous and instant significance has happened to change the economic condition of Europe. A sound prosperity is not built overnight.

The plain answer is that no great change has come about. We were never so much disliked as was represented; we are not so much liked now as represented. The nations of Europe were not quite so badly off as they were officially presented as being; None of them today is as well off as it is being officially presented as being. It has just seemed wise and expedient to some of the European governments to shift from the vinegar to the sugar method of catching flies.

The theory seems to be that, since America has purchased all the European bonds offered, as well as much old furniture and many old masters, it might also fancy the interesting antique known as war-debt cancellation. Uncle Sam did not fancy it with bitter words and a jeremiad, so it is being offered to him with a new dressing honeyed words and prosperity talk.

FOOLING THE "WETS" OR THE "DRYS"?

REPUBLICAN speakers are discussing the liquor issue to this text: "If the Democratic platform catches all the dry votes, and Governor Smith catches all the wet votes, Smith will be elected unanimously."

It has been said that anyone who wants to fool the American people in this age should at least sprinkle a bit of dry grass over the trap.

In this case the people see the trap all right, but they don't know which end of it to believe. Which do the Democrats really mean they will accomplish, if elected?

Is the platform trying to fool the "drys" or is Smith trying to fool the "wets?"

Since the voter can scarcely visualize Smith as a "dry", he must discard the platform promise.

Just what promise does Governor Smith hold out to the voter?

He assumes that: (1) for temporary relief, he will be able to get a majority of congress to alter the Volstead Act so that beer and wine, which do intoxicate, may be sold, and

(2) For permanent relief, he will be able to get three-quarters of congress to so alter the Eighteenth Amendment as to permit each state to decide whether it shall be "wet" or "dry." He also assumes the task of getting this re-amendment ratified by the legislatures of thirty-six states.

When we remember that his steam-roller at the Houston convention was unable to drive a "wet" plank into his own party's platform, a slight doubt of his ability to carry a new Volstead Act through congress enters the voter's mind.

Even if he got it through congress, the "drys" would appeal it to the Supreme Court, and it would be declared void because the Eighteenth Amendment forbids traffic in liquids which intoxicate, and his new content would have to be real beer and wine which did intoxicate or it would be no good to his "wet" friends.

Does he really believe that he can alter the Eighteenth Amendment, when all that the "drys" would have to do to block him would be to secure control of congressmen from thirteen states, and they now control the legislatures in forty-one states.

If he fails to alter the Eighteenth Amendment, then he can do nothing more than Mr. Hoover will do.

Issues in a campaign are promises which can be kept.

Governor Smith's "wet" trap is nothing more than a popular complaint, and we cannot consider it an issue in the campaign.

Mr. Hoover makes only promises which he can fulfill.

Anyone who really expects to be president will be as careful as is Mr. Hoover.

The Right Answer.
Lady Astor Returns.
American English.
British Socialism.

By ARTHUR G. BRISBANE
(Copyright, 1928, by N. Y. American, Inc.)

The answer by President Coolidge and Secretary Kellogg to the Franco-British plan for a naval agreement notifies Europeans none too soon that this is an independent country, not a British or French dominion.

It is refreshing and reassuring to read in the plainest kind of English that the United States "cannot consent to proposals which would leave the door wide open to unlimited building of certain types of ships of a highly efficient combatant value (to France and England), and would impose restrictions only on those types peculiarly suitable to American needs."

This country is indebted to Universal Service for publishing the real facts in regard to the French-British secret treaty and to President Coolidge and Secretary Kellogg for sending in exactly the right answer to nations that were recently begging us to save them from destruction—when they had "their backs to the wall" as Haig put it.

This nation should now build whatever it NEEDS. Cruisers submarines and airplanes, especially the last two.

"We have the money' as Britain used to say and should outbuild France and Britain combined.

Lady Astor born in Virginia, busy now in the House of Commons, returns to the United States saying, "The women of the world are organizing for peace.' They have always been organizing for peace and manufacturing sons for war.

American "talking movies" seen and heard in England arouse enthusiasm and prediction that the silent picture is doomed.

British critics suggest that American actors should "cultivate Oxford accent." They don't like our brand of English.

Perhaps talking movies will teach them to like the American language just as they have been taught by our silent movies to like American clothes and some other things.

The British premier Baldwin refuses to accept tarrif change as the issue in the coming election. Socialism is the REAL issue he says.

Socialism in his opinion is opposed to Constitutionalism and "individualism' which means presumably the desire and right of the individual to get what he can and keep it in the good old way.

Great is the difference as regards the power of "Radicals in Britain and in the United States. With us, Socialism is an interesting theory like the fourth dimension or the squaring of the circle.

Only Socialists take Socialism seriously here. And the ablest of the American Socialists, Victor Berger a really educated man would probably tell you that to raise wages 20 per cent is to reduce socialism 20 per cent.

On Wednesday work was stopped for an hour everywhere in Palestine among Jewish workers as a protest against police interference at the Wailing Wall on Yom Kippur.

Shops were closed, traffic stopped in Jerusalem, while 10,000 listened to addresses of denunciation by rabbis.

The Wailing Wall at which Jews periodically express their grief belongs to the Arabs under the League of Nations settlement. The Jews demand that it be turned over to them.

A discussion affecting all the holy places in Jerusalem may result.

The interest rates paid by business men in America continue higher than anywhere in the world except in Chinese shops.

In Wall street call money Friday cost 8 per cent. Business men borrowing on time paid 7 3-4 per cent.

High finance is doing what it can to kill the golden goose but probably will be satisfied if it can strip all the fat off that goose before it dies.

It should be some one's business to remind national banks that usury is illegal as well as immoral.

President Coolidge might choose to do it.

DAISY AND CHILD

In a field a daisy grew,
All a daisy's charm it knew.
Like its countless sister there
Modest, gracious, sweet and fair;
Cattle grazing on the hill
Might its perfect splendor kill,
Man might tramp it under foot,
And the plough's blade tear its root;
But the daisy had no fear
From its sisters blooming near.

Never daisy nodding by
Would deceive it with a lie,
Or, some selfish end to win,
Lure it into shame and sin;
Not one envious sister there
Would its loveliness impair,
Or in any way impede
Its full right to flower and seed.
Daisies never yet have known
Any danger from their own.

Lord, I pray Thee that my child,
As the daisies growing wild,
All unhindered by her kin
May her soul's perfection win;
May they never bend her mind
To a sin of any kind.
May she never come to harm
And be cheated of her charm
By the things she'll see and hear,
But grow lovelier year by year.

Hints and Dints

Sun sets tonight 5:43. Sun rises tomorrow 5:57.

About the only excitement this week will be looking for new winter clothes and getting the winter coal in.

Nothing looks worse at this season of the year than a straw hat that was first proudly worn along about last April.

Every year we hear a lot of chaps who put up a scrap for a low auto number. It seems to us a low number would be a disadvantage, as the police can read two or four figures easier than six. Of course, those who obey all the auto laws need fear nothing from a low number.

It seems to us if we were President of the United States and had only one child, a son, and we had only a few months to stay in the White House, we would have the boy stay at home and enjoy it and not let him go far away and work for $30 a week. Of course, we are not President, and also it is none of our business.

But it's always dad's car when it needs a new tire.

"MY HENRY"
By Franklyn Blanning

I know my Henry has his faults
And that good English he assaults.
He's very apt to miss a shave;
He likes to say, "He's no man's slave."
He won't set foot inside a church;
The beer he drinks sure is not birch.
He only reads the sporting news
And reads it best without his shoes

I know my Henry has his faults,
But idle gossiping he halts.
He won't speak ill of any man
Until the facts are there to scan.
Handsome he is, but not a flirt;
Never a duty did he shirk.
He puts his pay into my hands.
Speak of me and his chest expands.
My Henry is no perfect saint—
He lacks the trimmings and the paint.

Now they are circulating a report that Col. Lindbergh is going to get married. Well, if he does he had better marry a girl who likes to fly, as she will be at home a lot of the time if she does not. And that also is none of our business.

Some short skirts reveal, among other things, that the wearers have failed to get hep to the secret of reducing their ankles.

There is generally more or less trouble still in the cities where they have bartenders. All the shocking street murders are near the places that employ those life-savers. When gangsters use their machine guns it is almost always in front of a saloon. And it is someone connected with a saloon that gets riddled.

One thing we do know about airplanes, and that is that the percentage of accidents in them is very small—only one to a person.

A woman at Yonkers, N. Y., left a trolley conductor one hundred dollars in her will because he was always kind and courteous to her when she was riding on his car. No doubt this news will cause a lot of conductors to try to be more civil—and some bus drivers may also take notice.

It was our pleasure last Friday to be in Zelienople to attend the meeting of the newspaper publishers of western Pennsylvania. We knew about all of them and they knew us, and we had a great time. Zelienople is not only one of the nicest little places in Pennsylvania, but also has one of the best hotels we ever stopped at for a meal. It is The Kaufmann House and is known far and wide. Zelienople is on the Perry Highway and when it gets finished that town is sure to grow. It has some fine citizens, who boost with their money and their conversation, a combination hard to beat.

A lover is one who hugs like a bear—a married man is one who growls like a dog.

One way to make sure of looking forward to paying alimony is to begin your married life with her folks.

The color of a girl's eyes may interest a man, but it's the color of a man's money that interests the girls.

Anybody who believes wisdom comes with age has never watched a blonde vamp making a monkey out of a grandpap.

A Los Angeles woman has brought suit for divorce because her husband snores. I am not very strong for divorces, but snoring, to my mind, constitutes good and legal grounds for separation. Having once lived three years in a hotel room and heard snoring from the right, the left, from below and above, I can sympathize with this distracted wife. Snorers (and I fear that I snore myself, but am not quite sure) should be segregated.

LITTLE SISTERS ALSO A PEST

The young man stood just inside the door with the young woman on whom he showered his affections. He kissed her in the approved style, while the 4-year-old sister of the girl watched curiously. When the young man started to leave (the girl's parents were seated on the porch), the little girl called out "Won't you kiss me good night, too?"

Gov. Smith took up the wet issue in Milwaukee. Just think of what would happen to any candidate who had the affrontery to even mention prohibition in the place where suds factories made a name for the city enough to make it famous. Great place for Al Smith, all right.

A man who had bought a country estate was entertaining a house party which included a famous geologist. Poniting to an enormous rock in the distance, he said:

"That's 70,003 years old."

"You're very precise," the geologist said.

"Oh, I know I'm right!" his host replied. "A geologist was here three years ago, and he said then it was 70,000 years old."

HOW TO WRITE A DETECTIVE STORY

The detective story has become an institution. Almost every publishing house issues one or more a month.

This implies that there are thousands of writers hoping to compose a successful detective story.

It may be of assistance to many of these aspiring writers to know the essentials of this kind of a tale.

There is a certain amount of hokum useful anywhere.

Actors use it. Certain storm scenes, shipwreck scenes and battle scenes are standardized for almost any movie that wants them. So there are some things necessary in any good mystery story. They are:

1. Hawkshaw was a mild, insignificant looking man. He had pale, watery blue eyes, but somehow seemed to observe every thing in his surroundings.

2. The detective looked at him with a steely glint in his eyes.

3. Hawkshaw smiled a grim smile.

4. "Ah," said Hawkshaw, "I see the man that made this pencil mark on the wall had an Uncle Dudley that was killed in the war, also an Aunt Maria from Lowell Massachusetts, who was descended from a long line of New England old maids, his grandfather on his mother's side had a wart on his nose and his third cousin was named Elmer and he wore a number eleven shoe."

"Marvelous," said I.

"Not at all," replied the detective. "Simply deduction."

5. "Whom do you suspect?" I asked.

"I never tell my conclusions until I have evidence usable in court," said Hawkshaw, "but I will arrest the criminal at half past three tomorrow afternoon."

6. Detective work is mostly infinite pains and hard work.

7. I had a feeling that there was someone in the room with me. I could see nothing nor hear nothing, but I sensed some one's presence.

8. Eleanor was a beautiful girl. The moment I saw her I knew that I had met the one woman for me. She, however, did not know this so well.

9. "That man is not guilty," said Hawkshaw. "I will stake my reputation on it, although all circumstances point to his guilt."

10. As soon as he was apprehended the criminal kindly broke down and told us all how it happened. In good detective stories the criminal usually tells the reader all he wants to know.

11. The detective smiled mysteriously and filled his pipe.

12. Everybody took a whisky and soda. If you cannot get any good whisky in the United States you can always get it in story books.

New Devices Are Accepted As Revolutionary In Flying

Autogyro And Diesel-Type Aircraft Engines Called Most Important Contributions Of Recent Years

The autogyro and the adaptation of the Diesel engine to aircraft inspire many hopeful editorial predictions as to the future of aviation. The former, it is thought, will have a tendency to make large flying fields necessary, while the latter is expected to add to safety and remove some difficulties in fuel handling.

"As last summer developed into a field day for the ocean flyer," says the NEW YORK HERALD TRIBUNE, "so this seems to be turning into one for the aero inventor. And of the two seasons, it is possible that this one, notwithstanding its relative lack of spectacularity, may come to be considered much the more important maker of aviation history. Successful tests of two revolutionary departures in airplane and motor design, respectively, have adorned the front-page news columns. The flight from London to Paris of De la Cierva's autogyro, constructed on the principle of the helicopter, has caused immense excitement in technical circles, despite its subsequent crash. And now, before the aviation authorities have ceased to gasp from the shock of this startling innovation, they are invited to contemplate the successful demonstration of the first Diesel-type aircraft engine ever built. These two inventions are the first, since the Wrights got off the ground in their home-made machine, 25 years ago, really to alter the factors of flight."

Agreeing that both developments promise to be revolutionary, the WORCESTER GAZETTE adds that "the new motor apparently succeeds in doing what has long been a dream of mechanical engineers—the applying of a Diesel type of internal combustion to flying. The Diesel engine has numerous advantages," continues the paper, "over an ordinary gasoline motor. It uses cheaper fuel. It requires no complicated electric ignition system, since explosions are brought about by compression instead of a spark. Its heavy fuel oil is far less of a bore and explosion hazard than tanks of gasoline. It would have the further advantage of eliminating ignition interference, through constant sparking, with radio reception and transmission."

"Perpetual amazement at the feats of flying produced by up-to-date models need not altogether blind us to the possibility of improvement, or even of revolutionary alternations in structural technique," advises the ATLANTA JOURNAL, as it describes the performance of the autogyro in its flight across the English Channel, stating that "it came down almost vertically, arriving at a full stop on the ground, only 200 feet from the perpendicular point where gas was cut off in the air. This is only about one-tenth the distance covered by an ordinary plane; even after the wheels touch earth," states The Journal, with the comment: "Overhead propeller blades suggest at once several new capabilities for airplanes. Nor are they alone among the novel adaptations now being experimented with by engineers. Just as we learn its shape, the airplane may suddenly be transformed into an entirely different creature, safer and more versatile."

"Is the airplane to go? Is it to be succeeded by the autogyro?" asks the WATERLOO TRIBUNE, with the explanation: "The British, Italian and Spanish governments have ordered autogyro machines for army experimentation, after witnessing demonstrations. We can understand what windmill propellers are capable of in the way of power. In the autogyro we may have a great step forward in safety."

"It is noly natural," according to the DETROIT FREE PRESS, "that there should be much speculation as to the availability of the autogyro as a mailcarrier for use in meeting incoming ocean liners. Other employment for it may be found, and meanwhile everybody interested in the future of aviation will wonder whether the Spaniard's machine is not destined some day to blaze altogether new paths in airplane design—paths already presaged by the helicopter, not only reducing the danger of helicopter flying, but also lessening the risks now involved in taking off and alighting with the best standard models of heavier-than-air machines."

"The most remarkable part of the Windmill," declares the WASHINGTON EVENING STAR, "is its landing facility. With the huge propeller above his head rotating slowly, the pilot may cover over a field, picking out the exact spot on which he wishes to land, and he needs only a few yards of level terrain on which to do it. Ever since the first airplane of the Wright brothers took the air over a lonely strip of beach in North Carolina, man has dreamed of the vertically rising and descending, flying machine. Inventors in all parts of the world have been striving to solve the problem. Senor Juan de la Cierva, a former member of the Spanish Parliament, after intensive study, hit upon the plan of combining a huge overhead propeller with small, spadelike wings on a regular airplane fuselage, and the demonstration gave conclusive proof that his ideas are sound."

The mishap which came two days after the successful flight, in the judgment of the NEWARK EVENING NEWS, "in no wise took away from the significance of the earlier accomplishment," and that paper draws the conclusion: "As cities are hurrying to build aviation fields, realizing the necessity of keeping pace with this amazing new means of communication, a development appears which may render these fields, in their present sprawling form, unnecessary. That long, running start which is now required in order to give a plane sufficient momentum to take the air is one of the most serious handicaps of present-day flying. Granting the autogyro prove its practability in future tests, it may mean the realization of the vision of planes rising from and descending on the roofs of buildings, and spaces no larger than a city building lot. With this new facility, there would have been taken another wide and spectacular step in aviation."

"The golden age of flying is at hand!" exclaims the PROVIDENCE BULLETIN, and the ALLENTOWN CALL sees "a development which promises to he epochal." The DAYTON DAILY NEWS suggests: "Flat rooftops, when the aerial age dawns in earnest, could readily be converted into miniature airports for craft like the autogyro. With possibility of the breakage, which caused the recent accident, removed the autogyro would be foolproof and almost accident-proof." The NEW YORK TIMES holds that "for general use the autogyro promises to be a rival of the airplane."

The SAN FRANCISCO BULLETIN is impressed by the fact that, in 1909, in its own city, there was "an old blacksmith shop in which a veteran inventor was displaying a model with six blades on top and one in front. * * * His model had neither wings nor motors. It lacked the wings because he did not think they were necessary, and was without motors because he was without the money to buy them. But he had the idea now found to be workable."

SMART ANSWERS

A question may be answered perfectly correctly and the answer be anything but the answer expected by the questioner.

At the Bureau of Naturalization, the following dialogue was overheard wherein the seeker for citizenship made some very unexpected but at the same time some very trite answers:

"Where is Washington?"

"He's dead."

"I mean the Capital of the United States."

"Oh, they loaned it all to Europe."

"Do you promise to support the Constitution?"

"Me? How can I? I have a wife and six children to support."

The police called in a citizen whose house had been ransacked by night marauders. The visitors found nothing and the citizen was content to let well enough alone, as his answers to the questionings of the police will show:

"So you were visited by burglars last night. What did they get?"

"Practice."

'No, no; I mean what did they rob you of?"

"A good night's rest."

"Oh, thunder! You know what I mean—did they take anything?"

"Yes, they took their departure."

To Seal Safety Deposit Boxes And Hold For Atlanta Officers

(International News Service)

WINNIPEG, Man., Oct. 1.—Convinced that Clinton S. Carnes, former treasurer of the Southern Baptists home mission board in Atlanta, Ga., must have considerable money cached in safety deposit boxes in various Winnipeg banks, police here today began a systematic canvass in the hope they might uncover some of the million dollars Carnes is charged with having embezzled.

Carnes, who was captured here Friday after many weeks' search, posed as F. L. Lewis of Milwaukee, and police believe they will be able to find deposits under that name. Although Carnes denied he had taken any such sum as a million dollars, he did not deny that he had embezzled sums running into many thousands of dollars.

A considerable sum, the exact amount of which was not revealed by police, was found in Carnes' room and on his person. This, however, was a mere trifle compared to the amount he is alleged to have embezzled.

In the event safety deposit boxes rented by Carnes, alias Lewis, are discovered, they will be sealed and held until Atlanta officers make some legal arrangements to open and investigate them, police announced today.

Winnipeg police said they have no interest in uncovering evidence against Carnes, they pointed out today, and have instituted the search merely for the purpose of assisting United States authorities, as is their custom.

This group will make first hammered German silver bracelets.

Make Reports Of Traffic Mishaps

Three Persons Reported Injured But Only Slightly, Over Week End

At least three persons were struck and injured to some extent over the week end in accidents reported to the police. Guy L. Neal, 2010 North Mercer street, reported Sunday that he was going west on East Washington street at Pearson street, when a boy about eleven years of age, stepped from the curb in front of his car and was knocked down. He was picked up by Mr. Neal and taken to the Shenango Valley hospital where on examination, it was found that he had not been seriously injured. Mr. Neal did not get the name of the boy.

G. Rauser reported Sunday that he was going west on Lutton street at South Mercer street, when a little girl about ten years of age ran out in front of his machine, her head striking the radiator of his car. Mr. Rauser wanted to take the girl to a doctor, but she ran away before he could get her name.

Report at the police station this morning was to the effect that an automobile bearing Pennsylvania license 960-693, driven by a woman, hit a telephone pole near the Atlantic Gasoline station on East Washington street this morning. The driver was severely hurt. The car was damaged.

Other accidents reported over the week-end were of a minor character.

MAN IS ARRESTED FOR BEING WITHOUT LICENSE

Officer Criswell arrested John Hall at the corner of Croton avenue and East Washington street Saturday night, when he found him operating a motor vehicle without a drivers license. He will be turned over to an alderman, because this is a violation of the state motor laws.

It doesn't require a great deal of inventive genuius for a man to make a fool of himself.

Dr. Caldwell's 3 Rules Keep You Healthy

Dr. Caldwell watched the results of constipation for 47 years, and believed that no matter how careful people are of their health, diet and exercise, constipation will occur from time to time regardless of how much one tries to avoid it. Of next importance, then, is how to treat it when it comes. Dr. Caldwell always was in favor of getting as close to nature as possible, hence his remedy for constipation, known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is a mild vegetable compound. It can not harm the most delicate system and is not a habit forming preparation. Syrup Pepsin is pleasant-tasting, and youngsters love it. It does not gripe. Thousands of mothers have written us to that effect.

Dr. Caldwell did not approve of drastic physics and purges. He did not believe they were good for human beings to put into their systems. In a practice of 47 years he never saw any reason for their use when a medicine like Syrup Pepsin will empty the bowels just as promptly, more cleanly and gently, without griping and harm to the system.

Keep free from constipation! It robs your strength, hardens your arteries and brings on premature old age. Do not let a day go by without a bowel movement. Do not sit and hope, but go to a druggist and get one of the generous bottles of Syrup Pepsin. Take the proper dose that night and by morning you will feel like a different person.

Get a bottle today, at any drugstore and observe these three rules of health: Keep the head cool, the feet warm, the bowels open. For a free trial bottle, just use special coupon below:

Poor Director Reports Enjoyable Trip Across State And Stay In Philadelphia

"Yes, we did have cool weather, but it was nice all the time," said County Poor Director Mansford B. Hogue this morning in describing his recent motor trip to Philadelphia where he attended the annual convention of Pennsylvania poor directors and welfare workers. The director and his party arrived back in New Castle yesterday.

Accompanying Mr. Hogue on the journey were Mrs. Hogue, County Commissioner and Mrs. Calvin C. Boyd and Mrs. Perry Snyder, superintendent of the Lawrence county home, and her son, James.

"More than 400 persons attended the sessions held in the auditorium of the magnificent Ben Franklin hotel," continued the director. Problems of the department and other matters relative to our work were brought up and discussed.

"We were taken on a tour of Philadelphia; enjoyed a ride down the Delaware river; visited the navy yard, Independence hall and other historical structures. At the close of the poor director's meeting, we left for Allentown where the Pennsylvania County Commissioners' association was holding its yearly conclave. Commissioner Boyd attended this, and then we departed for home, taking a northern route for the return trip. Stop overs were made at Niagara Falls, Watkin's Glenn and other beautiful and fascinating places."

Director Hogue said that the poor directors and welfare workers chose Conneaut Lake as the site for their 1929 meeting, which will probably occur sometime in the fall.

ALLEGED DRUNKEN DRIVER ARRESTED

Tom Kelly, of Akron, O., was arrested Saturday afternoon by Sergeant D. T. Nelson, as he was enroute to work and charged with the operation of a motor vehicle while under the influence of liquor. Kelly had jammed up traffic at Jefferson and Falls streets as Sergeant Nelson came along and the officer investigated with the result that Kelly was arrested. Kelly was taken before Alderman Walter T. Hamilton, where he has been charged with operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated. He will get a hearing this afternoon.

Aviator Will Use Ship And Plane In Visit To Germany

Chamberlin Will Demonstrate Ship-To-Shore Airplane Service

Plans To Visit Aeronautical Show, French And British Airports

Clarence D. Chamberlin, who holds the record for a non-stop flight between the United States and Germany and who appeared in New Castle last April, has planned to demonstrate the practicability of airplane passenger service between ship and shore Saturday when he and his engineering staff board the Leviathan to attend the World's Aeronautical fair, which will take place in Germany.

Together with his wife and members of his staff the aviator will take off from the Teterboro, N. J., airport in his Wasp motored Loening amphibian for North river in the New York harbor. When the party arrives at North river they will be hoisted onto the deck of the Leviathan by winches. At Cherbourg on October 12 they will again board the amphibian while it is on the deck of the steamship and be lowered to the harbor. They will then take off for the Le Bourget, Paris, field, where they plan to spend a few hours.

Arriving at Le Bourget, they will fly on to Berlin where they will attend the airplane show.

The Leviathan will leave Southampton for the return voyage October 13 and Chamberlin, carrying his party in the Loening, plans to fly to the Croyden field, look over the great London airport ,and then catch the boat at Cherbourg again.

It will be remembered that Chamberlin spent a day in New Castle last April, where he lectured at the cathedral auditorium.

Cannot Ride With Postal Employes

Even Friends Or Relatives Are Barred From Cars Of Mail Carriers

By order of the United States post office department at Washington persons out side the postal service are prohibited from either driving the car or accompanying rural mail carriers while in the performance of their duties.

Friends or relatives of the carriers are thus warned of the departmental announcement, restricting them from riding in the machines of the carriers while on duty. Anyone not connected with the postal service, including those would-be drivers or assistants, are violating the order issued by the Washington office if they proceed to do this without the permission of post office authorities.

BEWARE THE COUGH FROM COLDS THAT HANG ON

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

PETER'S ADVENTURES in ANIMAL LAND

"The second hungry Albatross who hadn't caught the blubber didn't know what besides the bit of fat was in his cousin's mouth. He was a little angry.

"'Hey there!' cried he. 'Even if you did reach it first you needn't gobble up all of that food, need you? Give me a chance at it. I always share my finds with you!'

"How angry that Albatross was. He scolded and pleaded and jeered, calling his cousin a selfish, hateful thing for not giving him even a taste of the spoils.

"But his cousin answered never a word. How could he with a hook in his mouth.

"At last, thinking that, since the Albatross stayed so long in that particular spot, he must be hiding another tidbit, intending to wait until the other two got out of the way so he could eat it in peace, the other greedy fellow—not giving the wise Albatross a chance to tell him the truth about the matter—swept down upon his cousin and, pushing him aside with his great wings, settled upon the water, where he thought the blubber must be.

"If there ever was a surprised bird in all this world it was that Albatross. Cormorant laughed so hard he almost fell from the conning tower. No sooner had the foolish fellow alighted upon the water where he was so sure the blubber must be than it was gone and so, too, was his cousin.

"Right before his astonished eyes the smaller Albatross sailed away, towed off in the wake of the ship. The second was left sitting all alone on the waves with nothing at all to eat.

"How Cormorant's acquaintance explained matters Cormorant never knew. The last he saw of the two cousins they were arguing furiously about it. He soon forgot all about them, so interested was he in watching the captive, following, because he must, in the wake of the ship."

"HEY THERE!" EVEN IF YOU DID REACH IT FIRST YOU NEEDN'T GOBBLE IT UP."

Business Interests In Favor Of Bonds

Penn State Issue Meets Favor All Over State, Survey Shows

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Oct. 1.—Business interests of Pennsylvania favor all of the proposed bond issues except the $5,000,000 one for state armories, the state Chamber of Commerce announced today.

The announcement today followed compilation of the returns from a questionnaire mailed to all the members of the chamber. The questionnaire presented arguments both for and against each of the proposed issues, asking members to study both sides and then vote.

The canvass of its members showed that the $8,000,000 proposal for State College conustruction is the most popular of all the amendments. More than 63 per cent of those who voted showed they favor the proposal.

The vote on the $50,000,000 road bond issue was close, the percentage favoring it being 54.3 while those who are for a like amount for state institutions was 51.5 per cent.

Sentiment on the forestry issue of $25,000,000 showed even closer division. The percentage favoring it was 50.8. Only 37.1 per cent of those who voted indicated that they will back the issue for armories.

The Easiest Way to Keep in Style

By MAE MARTIN

No woman ought to wear dresses or blouses, or stockings of a color that's decidedly out of style or faded. And no woman would if all of us knew how simple and easy it is to make these things stylish and fresh looking by the quick magic of home tinting or dyeing.

Anybody can do tinting or dyeing successfully with true, fadeless Diamond Dyes. Tinting with them is as easy as bluing, and it takes just a little longer to "set" the colors in dyeing. The new, stylish colors appear like magic, right over the old, faded colors. Diamond Dyes give the daintiest, softest tints, and the deepest and richest shades. They never streak, spot or run, like inferior, makeshift dyes. They are real dyes. Insist on them and save disappointment.

My new 64 page illustrated book, "Color Craft," gives hundreds of money-saving suggestions for brightening your home and adding style to your wardrobe. It's FREE. Just write NOW, to Mae Martin, Home Service Dept., Diamond Dyes, Burlington, Vermont.

Resident Finds Old Newspapers

A. E. Hess' Papers Show Spirit Which Preceded War With Spain

A. E. Hess of 102 Richelieu avenue, discovered a number of most interesting old papers recently, in back of the mirror of an old dresser.

There are two copies of the Pittsburgh Times, one of the predecessors of the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette and a copy of the Minerva, Ohio, News.

All the papers are dated in 1897, just a short time before the Spanish-American war.

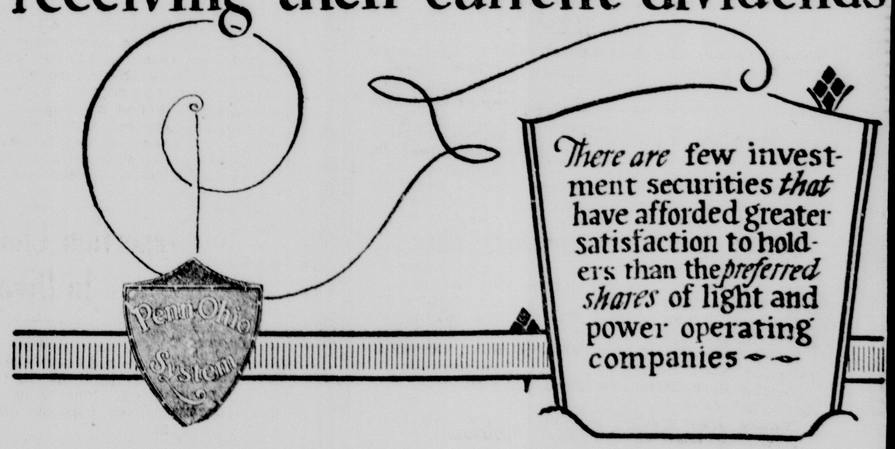

In the issues of the Pittsburgh Times there is news concerning the Klondyke, which was at its height about that time, an article about Hawaii awaiting to be annexed to this country, and a cut showing the feeling of the Americans at that time concerning Cuba and the misrule of Spain in that country. It is indicated throughout the paper that the United States is very much interested in watching events in the island.

A political article of interest is that which is headed "Ready To Fight Quay." The article in this case states that at a meeting in Philadelphia the Business Men's League decided to accept the challenge of the late Senator Matthew S. Quay and attempt to defeat him in the primaries, which were to have been held some days later than article is dated.

Dead branches in trees may be removed and other general pruning done now. Sap flow is decreased and there will be little more growth this season.

AUTHORITIES SEARCH FOR MISSING MEN

(International News Service)

WAYNESBURG, Pa., Oct. 1.—Four convicts sawed their way out of the county jail here last night and made their escape by sliding down a rope made of blankets, jail officials learned early today when William Nugent discovered the blanket-rope and notified the sheriff's office.

The prisoners who escaped are John Ledson, 31, and Harry Swaney, 22, both of Point Marion, being held on larceny charges; Charles Allen, 20, serving a six months term for burglary, and John Hardin, charged with larceny. Nineteen other prisoners were in the jail.

The four men sawed a bar allowing them freedom from the bull pen into the outer corridor and then sawed another bar from a window through which they made their escape.

Arno S. McClellan, sheriff, is in Erie on business. Mrs. Dan Phillips is acting sheriff.

An immediate search was started for the four men. Up until noon no trace of the escaped men had been found. Mrs. Phillips notified police authorities of surrounding towns to be on the look-out for the men.

Youth Identifies Owner Of Farm On Which He Was Held

Billy Ranieri Today Identifies Cappellano As Man Who Owned Farm

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—Little Billy Ranieri, kidnaped and held on the "kidnapers' farm" of Andrew Cappellano, today positively identified him as the man who kept him captive for 13 days while his alleged confederates sought $60,000 ransom money from A. Frank Ranieri, Billy's father.

Cappellano, seized at Herrin, Ill., at the home of a relative, was taken to the Ranieri home and Mrs. Ranieri went to school to bring Billy back for questioning, not telling the boy that Cappellano was in the house.

The moment Billy saw the man he screamed: "That's him! That's the man who kept me on the farm!"

Supreme Court Resumes Today

Nine Venerable Justices Take Oath Of Office For New Court Year

THREE JURISTS READY TO RETIRE

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—Nine venerable justices mounted the bench of the United States Supreme Court today to usher in a new eight months' term of court during which some of the most important litigations in years will be considered.

Scores of lawyers and high government officials gathered for the brief formalities which marked the commencement of the new court year.

Three of the nine justices on the bench are eligible for retirement, but there is no indication that any resignations will be presented to the President in the near future. Despite persistent rumors of his retirement, Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes, now past 87 years of age, began the new term apparently in fine fettle.

Chief Justice Taft, who is 71, and Associate Justice Brandeis, a year his senior, are the other two who have passed the three score and ten years at which they became eligible for retirement.

Much of the speculation over the possibility of changes in the court is believed to have arisen from the likelihood that the next president may have thrust upon him the responsibility of making an unusual number of appointments to the high court. The division of the court in the past year on many important questions has centered attention upon the importance of any changes in personnel.

Mummer's Parade For College Town

Jack Hulme Making Plans For Last Night Of October; Other News

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON Oct. 1—Mummers will walk in the college town on Hallowe'en according to plans now being made by Jack Hulme head of the New Wilmington Boy Scouts and director of the town's recreation center. A gigantic mummers parade which will include in it all the boys and girls of the town is planned and a committee of the townspeople will probably be selected to take care of arrangements.

Following the parade Mr. Hulme plans a great reception and entertainment at the local high school gymnasium at which many local and professional people will entertain the "kids." And to end the evening it is proposed that a feast of candied apples and nuts be given the mummers.

Of course the best costume in the parade will be picked by a group of judgses composed of New Wilmington residents. Jack Hulme will be the master of ceremonies at this first organized Hallowe'en parade and entertainment in the college town.

A dinner meeting of the Happy Hour society of the local Presbyterian church is planned for tomorrow evening at Hotel Pulaski. The meeting will start at 7 o'clock. Mrs. Guy Neal and Mrs. W. Wilson compose the committee in charge.

Miss Eleanor Beerbower who has been attending the Edinboro Teachers college spent yesterday with her parents here.

Miss Lucille Clark instructor in art in the Ambridge schools also spent the week end with her parents here.

Eugen Carr who graduated from Westminster in the class of '25 arrived here yesterday and will stay until Wednesday. Mr. Carr is teaching music at Eugene, Ore.

Mrs. D. H. McQuiston who has been visiting in North Dakota since late last spring returned here last week. She will again take up her position as director of the choir of the United Presbyterian church.

Mystery Surrounds Burning Of Yacht

Youth Trying To Get Good View Of Burning Boat Is Drowned

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Mystery today surrounded the spectacular burning of an eighty-foot yacht in Manhasset bay last night. The yacht, an express cruiser which apparently had broken away from its moorings, illuminated the blanket of darkness like a gigantic beacon as it floated with the tide and then sank.

Reports that the cruiser belonged to Walter Chrysler, the motor magnate, were being checked.

The drama of the sea resulted in the drowning of Walter Robertson, one of three youths who started out in a leaky rowboat to get a close view of the burning of another Hesperus. Robertson sank and was drowned, but his companions were rescued by Edward Meyer, 20.

District Attorney Gardner Has "Stage" Set For Big Investigation

Verona Will Likely Be Called To Witness Stand; Probe "Slot Machines"

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 1.—Led by District Attorney Samuel H. Gardner, Allegheny county's grand jury buckled down to its inquiry into alleged police protected graft and corruption in Pittsburgh today with nearly score of witnesses including confectionary store proprietors and others in whose establishments slot machines are said to have been placed by leaders of the city's alleged "slot machine ring."

Indications were that the slot machine would be the first "racket" to come under the searching eyes of the jury.

The city has been blanketed with subpoenaes summoning witnesses from whom the grand jury believes information can be secured concerning the sensational charges of Alderman John J. Verona, deposted police magistrate and powerful Hill district "boss" who attacked the city administration with accusations that it harbored police-protected vice establishments.

Verona As Witness

How many of these witnesses can be heard, is problematical and largely depends on how rapidly the actual conditions are unfolded.

Verona, whose open break with the administration of Mayor Charles Kline, brought about the grand jury probe, is expected to be a headliner in the jury's investigation this week.

Adjudged by friends of the Hill district "boss" to be an aftermath of the vice inquiry, Police Inspector James N. Hoey, who played a prominent role in the early developments of the Verona-Kline break, sent his raiding squads into six alleged disorderly houses over the week-end.

Lieutenant David Corbett of the homicide squad will be called before the grand jury some time this week, District Attorney Gardner announced. Although he did not indicate what part Corbett would play in the probe, it is believed he will be questioned about many of the unsolved murders in the city in and effort to link crime and politics.

Steps Taken Today Toward Breaking Of Jugoslav Kingdom

Croatia Seeks To Dissolve Nation Made During War

(International News Service)

ZAGREB, Croatia, Jugoslavia, Oct. 1.—Croatia today took the first step towards breaking up the Jugoslav kingdom—a nation made posisble thru the intervention of Woodrow Wilson in European affairs.

The Croatian congress, consisting of delegates from Dalmatia as well as Croatia, adopted a resolution to make Croation finances separate from those of the mother country.

Under the resolution Croatia will attempt to make a loan in the United States to construct a new railroad to Spalato, thus making Spalato a free port for Croatia, Austria, Hungary, Poland and Czechoslovakia.

This is considered the first step towards autonomy for Croatia.

Republicans Open Drive For Million

Would Have Million Republicans Donate One Dollar In New Campaign

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—A drive by the Republican national committee for $1,000,000 in one dollar contributions was under way today.

"Campaign contributions should not be limited to the few," said Herbert Hoover, Republican nominee, in approving the drive. "I believe there should be the widest possible participation in raising the necessary expenses of the campaign."

The campaign will be waged in every state, under the direction of J. R. Nutt of Cleveland, national treasurer.

Coombs Examined By X-Ray Machine, Wrist Is Injured

Doctor Unable To Say Whether Or Not Coombs Will Get In Series

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Whether Earl Coombs, star Yankee center fielder, will be able to play in the first game of the world series here on Thursday could not be definitely stated today, stated today.

Dr. Edward King, who examined Coombs, said he could not say until tomorrow or possibly Wednesday whether Coombs will be in shape to play. Dr. King said he does not think Coombs' right wrist was fractured when he ran into the wall at Detroit last Thursday while chasing a high one. An X-ray photograph will determine the extent of the injury.

Dr. King has the Yankee player under observation and treatment and hopes to be able to say tomorrow whether Coombs can play in the series opener.

Auto Crashes Into R. R. Guard Gates

Word reaching divisional headquarters of the Pennsylvania railroad here this morning stated that an automobile bearing a number of men crashed into the guard gates at the company's Montgomery avenue crossing at 12:01 a. m. today, damaging the gates and the front fenders of the car, and immediately was deserted by its occupants.

It is said that the auto ran out past several other cars, halted by the gates, and proceeded directly into the path of the oncoming freight train. The car stopped before striking the train, however, allowing the occupants to escape before their identity was determined.

Police are investigating the case, according to the report to the local railroad office.

Charge Wampum Man Has Liquor

Joseph Miller of Wampum was arrested Saturday night by County Detective William G. Fleming and other officers, charged with possession of liquor. It is alleged that Miller was walking up the street in Wampum with some liquor under his arm and when officers started after him he tossed the liquor into the street, breaking the bottle. Enough of it was mopped up to make a test. He was held for court by Alderman William E. Marshall.

Henry Goldberg Given Promotion

Becomes Manager Of Rieck-McJunkin Plant In Pittsburgh

THOMAS BLAKE IS NEW MANAGER HERE

HENRY GOLDBERG

Announcement has been made of the promotion of Henry M. Goldberg, for 12 years manager of the Rieck McJunkin Dairy company here to a position as superintendent of the company's main plant at Pittsburgh. Mr. Goldberg has already embarked on his new duties and has been succeeded here by Thomas Blake of Neshannock avenue, this city.

Mr. Goldberg came to New Castle 12 years ago and built up the business for the Reick McJunkin company. He was interested in all of the civic movements and was always willing to work in the cause of anything that went for betterment of the city.

Goldberg became a charter member of the Kiwanis club and was a vital mover in all of the charitable drives held here. Through Mr. Goldberg the trucks of the company were often used in various ways in connection with civic movements.

In addition to belonging to the Kiwanis he was a member of the B. P. O. E., L. O. O. M. and athletically, some years ago sponsored the "Riecks" which captured the baseball championship of Lawrence county and was a staunch supporter of all other clean athletics.

Thomas Blake, who started with the company 10 years ago as a shipping clerk has been elevated to the position held by Goldberg and is well qualified to carry on the interests of the concern. He will be manager with territory in Lawrence, Mercer, Beaver and some points in Erie county.

Friends of both Goldberg and Blake wish them success in their new positions.

AMAZING LABOR SUPPORT PLEDGED TO HOOVER

To Get LaFollette Vote

The trend of opinion among these labor leaders, according to their messages to Hoover's managers, indicated the Republican nominee would get a majority of the vote which went to the late Robert M. LaFollette in the 1924 campaign. Hoover's "bread and butter" speech, it was said, inspired the trend.

At Newark Hoover compared American wages with those of European and Asiatic nations on the basis of purchasing a pound of "bread and butter". He demonstrated that Americans were paid from three to 15 times as much as other nationalities.

"It (this prosperity) spells better homes, automobiles, radios and a thousand things for the family that were utterly unknown a generation ago and are now utterly unknown to the average citizens in most countries of the world," Hoover then said.

"Continuous employment and prosperity of labor," he added, "depend upon the continuance of Republican policies."

Will Take No Chances

Labor apparently took him at his word, as Hines, the LaFollette leader, wrote: "The working people of America have no desire to be reduced to the living standards that prevails in Europe and they will refuse to take any chances in that direction. For this reason they will support Herbert Hoover for President."

Two other labor leaders—August F. Motz of the Allied Printing Trades Council, and James L. Montgomery, secretary of the typographical union—expressed the same convictions. Motz said Hoover's Newark speech "rang true and it will be answered in unmistakable terms of election day by the industrial workers of America."

Holt, the signalmen's president wrote Hoover that his views on "maintainance of prosperity through high wages and restricted immigration and the prevention of unemployment—should meet with the approval of all organized labor."

ELLWOOD CITY MAN, WALKING ON ROAD, IS KILLED BY AUTO

patient about remaining at the grounds so long. Not being able to find him, Mr. Anderson and party started toward New Castle by way of Harlansburg.

When they reached a point on the Harlansburg road near where the macadam and concrete join, they found several cars stopped. Getting out to find out what was the matter, it was found that a man had been struck and that the man was Haswell.

The accident happened about three or four hundred feet east of an illuminated sign on the north side of the road, and about midway between the top and the bottom of a grade. When the Anderson car stopped there were some half dozen cars ahead of it. There were also two cars parked about two hundred feet beyond the scene of the accident.

Several persons were trying to place Haswell, who was apparently dead, in the car of Harry Brown of Martin street. It was a Ford touring car and did not appear to be large enough as Mr. Haswell was a large man. While they were trying to put him in the Brown car Mrs. Julia Miller, of 27 Falls street, came up and said that she would take the man to the hospital, as she was driving a larger car. Some of Mrs. Miller's friends got out of her car to make room for Haswell and Lawrence Ritchie, who was in another car, got in the seat with Haswell and came to the New Castle hospital.

Dead When Hospital Is Reached

Haswell was dead when the hospital was reached. In fact it is believed that he was dead when he was picked up. He had a fractured skull, a broken right arm, dislocated left shoulder and broken right leg, near the instep, from which the bone was protruding. His clothing was torn and both shoes were torn off his feet.

Sheriff H. M. Reynolds and Coroner J. P. Caldwell were summoned to the hospital. From the stories given there appeared to be some confusion as to whether it was the Brown car or some other car that struck Haswell. Brown made a statement regarding the accident at police headquarters. Reynolds and Caldwell went to see Brown and were soon satisfied that it was not his car that had struck Haswell.: Mr. and Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Lauretta Kummer of Martin street were in the Brown car, and it was Mrs. Kummer that first recognized Haswell lying in the road.

No further report of the accident was made either, to city, county or state officials. It was stated by the Browns and Mrs. Kummer that a man who said that his car had hit Haswell came back from one of the cars parked down the road, and assisted in putting Haswell in the Miller machine. Mrs. Miller says that she told him to come to the New Castle hospital. A description of the man was given to Reynolds and Caldwell, and they gave it to Mr. Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Shira at Ellwood City. Mrs. Shira remembered seeing a man answering the description talking to a member of the orchestra at the dance. From him the name of Charles Thompson and Charles Green were secured. Anderson came to New Castle with Mr. and Mrs. Shira, and secured Sheriff Reynolds, who soon located both, and they were brought to the sheriff's office, where they were interviewed by the sheriff, coroner and state patrolman Davis, who had been called to the sheriff's office after the men were brought in.

Steps In Front Of Car

Green, who was first taken in custody, admitted to the officers that he had had a drink. Thompson stated that he had not been drinking. He said that he was coming down the grade at about 25 to 30 miles per hour, when a man suddenly stepped in front of his car and was struck. He said that the man was not over 20 feet ahead of him when he first saw him. He swerved his car, but could not avoid striking him. He thought the right headlight had struck him. He said that he stopped a short distance down the road and came back, along with Green and other occupants of the car. He assisted in putting the man in the Miller car, then got into his own car and drove on into New Castle. He remained at the home of Mrs. Daisy Rowan, who lives with her sister, Mrs. C. O. Patterson on Martin street, all night and all day Sunday until found by the sheriff. He said that he had intended to report the accident Sunday evening.

Thompson's car, an Essex, was found parked back of the Patterson house. Thompson had removed the license plates and placed them back of the back seat. He had also cut a portion of the rariator with a hatchet, in order to straighten a dinge. Asked why he had taken the license plates off he said that he had decided that he would never drive the car again. He claimed that he was so weak and nervous all day that he could not get out to make a report.

Mrs. Daisy Rowan, who accompanied him, stated that Thompson rooms at the home of Green, who resides with his mother, Mrs. Rider of Croton avenue. She said that she had been accompanied by her sister, Garnet Mayberry, a daughter of Mrs. Etta Gearing of 1108 Croton avenue. Miss Mayberry did not go with Mr. Green, but had merely accompanied her sister, Mrs. Rowan. Mrs. Rowan stated that it was the custom of Mr. Thompson when he was at her home to park his car in the yard back of the house. She said that both she and Thompson had been nervous wrecks all day, but had intended to go down to police headquarters and report the case on Sunday evening. She said that Thompson had told her when he removed the license plates that he was not going to drive the car any more. She also stated that she was the first person to reach the side of Haswell as he was lying in the road. He was about the centre of the highway, and was lying on his face. She and Mr. Thompson turned him over, and both assisted in putting him into the Brown car. They then went to their car, and she did not know that Haswell had afterwards been changed to the Miller car, she said.

After consulting with District Attorney J. Elder Bryan, Coroner Caldwell, informed Thompson that he would have to be locked up until the inquest, unless he could furnish a bond. Mr. Thompson was unable to furnish the bond Sunday night, but sent for his father, L. J. Thompson, who lives in Plaingrove township near Brent. Mr. Thompson arrived Sunday night and at once took steps toward having his son released on bail, pending the inquest. It will be held at the office of Alderman Mantz on Wednesday evening at 7:30.

Sheriff Reynolds, Coroner Caldwell and Mr. Anderson visited the scene of the accident Sunday morning. They found some broken glass from a lens, along the side of the road. There were blood spots and marks of a machine that had skidded. The blood spots were a considerable distance apart, there being several within a distance of from 75 to 100 feet.

Mr. Haswell is survived by his wife, two daughters, Mrs. Lena Shira and Mildred Haswell, and two sons, Wayne, and Mervin. He was one of the best known residents of Ellwood City, and a man who bore the respect and esteem of all who knew him. Funeral Tuesday at 2 p. m. from the family residence.

LIONS INTERNATIONAL

October 1, 1928.

Dear Brother Lion:

If you want to learn something about the transmitting and receiving of a telephone conversation you will have an opportunity tomorrow.

After we have eaten, Jack Dunfee and some of his assistants will conduct us on a tour of inspection of the local plant of the Bell company.

Ed Wilson asks that you bring your check book along.

King Lion Reed has called an important meeting of all directors at 11:30 at the Elk's Home Tuesday October 2.

Very cordially yours,
THOMAS I. ELLIOTT, Secretary.

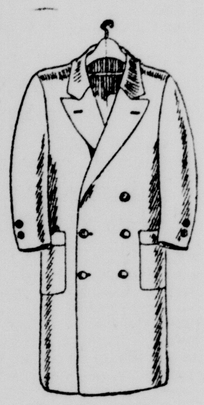

For a long wearing hat box suitable for the small hats now so popular a lirge tin waste basket with a cretonne top run around with elastic at the outer edge may be used.

And some people are buying coal by the ton when they haven't a single tire that will last through the winter.

A Complete Mayberry Job Costs Only $3.75

We can also clean your ties, your gloves, your spats.

—to have your Fall Suit dry-cleaned in the Mayberry way —then shaped by our new process

We'll clean it thoroughly—make it as free from stains and embedded dirt as the day the cloth came off the loom.

Then we'll restore the shape—make your suit look as smart as when it was fresh from the tailors.

Our new process shapes each part of the suit separately. A pressing mould shapes the collar; another rounds each shoulder so that it "sits" perfectly; another puts "line" into the waist; another presses trousers so that they hang right, with a crease that is even front and back and no "bagginess" at the knees.

—and to have your Fall Overcoat made so you'll be proud to wear it

Cleaned through and through—even to the linings and pockets. Smartness pressed into it. Edges made wafer-thin. Collar moulded so that it fits neatly. Shoulders reshaped into tailor-like smoothness. All the finish, smartness and stylish lines that can only be gained through pressing—the new system that moulds shape into clothes.

Little repairs done—buttonholes mended—buttons sewed on to stay. We can even reline your overcoat, or put in new pockets, if needed.

—and to have your Felt Hat Thoroughly Cleaned and Expertly Blocked

Not just sponged with a rag that's been dipped in gasoline, but thoroughly dry-cleaned, inside and out.

Then re-blocked. Not just ironed on a wood mould, but blocked by our Mr. Fisk who has been doing nothing else but block men's hats for years—a real master hand.

A job done so well that we'll gladly refund your money if you are not completely satisfied.

Your Suit cleaned and pressed in this superior way costs only $1.50

Cleaned and pressed, your Overcoat will be as smart as ever for only $1.50

Your Hat made as smart as ever 75c

The cool nights are already warning you to get this work done at once. We call and deliver—our truck is on your street twice a day. Phone now:

"Fountain Of Youth" No Longer Myth Is Claim Of Inventor

Captain Zimmer Of Los Angeles Invents Youth Restoring Water

"Radio-Active" Water Said To Add Fifteen Years To Human Body

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN

(Copyright 1928 International News Service)

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Declaring that "radium will add fifteen years to anybody's life," Captain H. R. Zimmer, Los Angeles inventor who has been experimenting with radium for twenty-nine years, today described a device he had perfected that makes ordinary drinking water "radio active" with amazing results.

"Radio active water makes old men feel young—peps 'em up," said Zimmer.

Is Not Cure-All

"It's not a cure-all but it does remarkable things. It tones up the system, reduces high blood pressure, softens hardening arteries and is fine for the gout.

It enables the drinker to enjoy sound and refreshing sleep, banishes melancholy and improves digestion. The improved circulation makes the skin softer, the complexion clearer, and in a number of instances wrinkles and blemishes have disappeared and the hair was restored to its original color."

Zimmer, who is 64 years old said he doesn't feel a day over 44. He has the appearance and vigor of a man of middle age. He is in New York in connection with tests he is making for the United States government of a high explosive he has invented and which is known as "radium-atomite," said to be more powerful than T N T. He has sixty one inventions to his credit.

Makes Water Fresh

The devise for making drinking water "radio active" is a circular disk arrangement that can be placed in any glass or jar. Making the water therein radio-active. It causes ordinary hydrant water to taste like that from the finest springs, according to Zimmer. The mache unit strength of the radio-active water is 2,000 compared with 48 mache units for Hot Springs water, 32 for Saratoga Springs water, 33 for the Carlsbad water and 185 for the St. Joachimstal Spring in Czecho-Slovakia, the inventor declared.

"Persons afflicted with superfluous flesh find the radio-active water very beneficial," said Zimmer, and people underweight invariably take on flesh.

"It relieves heart disorders, lumbago, neuralgal, neuritis, nervous prostration and rheumatism, it is especially beneficial to the glands.

Peps Doctors Up

Doctors scoffed at the invention at the start, Zimmer said, but he has tried it out on some aged physicians, and they have become so "pepped up" that they are heartily recommending the device.

Zimmer after years of study and experimentation, has perfected a process that produces and controls radium emanations without refining the radium element from the ore, and this has enabled him to make possible the manufacture of such a device as that which radiates the water and the power that goes into his high explosive, "radium-atomite."

Pitt University May Establish Graduate Center

Meeting Of Interested Students Is Called For Wednesday Afternoon

Opening on October 15, the Consultative Service for elementary work in the public schools will be begun by Dr. Gerald Yoachum of the University of Pittsburgh, according to an announcement made today by Dr. C. C. Green, superintendent of schools.. This Consultative Service is a part of the Institute Substitutive plan adopted by the New Castle schools.

On Wednesday, October 3rd, Dr. Harris and Dr. Meyerholz of the University of Pittsburgh will be in the Administration Building at four o'clock p. m. for the purpose of meeting all persons who are interested in the organization of a graduate center here. If enough persons show interest in the project, the university will establish such a center here.

Democratic Speakers Will Invade State

Number Are Scheduled To Make Addresses In Pennsylvania

By ARTHUR C. WIMER
(Special Washington News Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 1.—The Democratic national committee has announced that six democratic steersmen of the nation will invade Pennsylvania during the present week as a part of the great drive that is to begin over the whole country the first week in October.

The list of Pennsylvania speakers will be intensified each week until election day and will eventually embrace a score of prominent men and women speakers.

From October first to sixth inclusive the following Democratic leaders will campaign in the Keystone state:

Gov. Albert C. Ritchie of Maryland.
Former Governor Silzer of New Jersey.
Congressman Griffin of New York.
Congressman T. Weber Wilson of Mississippi.
Miss Anna Kross of Connecticut.
Miss Francis Perkins of Connecticut.
Miss Anna Mathews of New York.
Miss Mary O'Connell of New York.

I am still taking it and it sure is a help to me. I can do my work without resting before I am through. I know that if women will give the Vegetable Compound a trial they can overcome those tired and worn-out feelings. I cannot express the happiness I have received and how completely it has made over my home."—Mrs. D. H. Sibert, 1326 Laurel St., Elkhart, Indiana.

Christmas Mail Rush Is Starting

Vacationists Use Many Post Cards—At A Penny Apiece

The customary after-vacation spurt in the amount of mail delivery from the New Castle post office is becoming noticeable day by day, postal officials remark. The spurt is that which continues up to and through the holiday season, only to slacken down at the end of the New Year's rush.

"During the summer, the amount of mail delivered is lighter than the ordinary average," said the official. Many residents are away on vacations at this time and a natural reduction in their mail occurs. Since penny postal cards have found their way back to the postal patronage, the increase in this type of mail has been great. These are used in most cases by vacationists, who, in their hustle and bustle to enjoy themselves, find little time to pen lengthy letters.

"The parcel post service is operating under healthy business conditions at the present time and will continue to undergo even better days as Christmas time rolls around. After that time, the slump in mail matter is great."

Local postal attaches have already commenced plans for their holiday crowds and are daily fortifying themselves for the heavy work in view.

Over 1000 Delegates To Attend Convention

Pennsylvania Legionnaires Will Be Active At National Meeting

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 1.—The largest delegation from the East—1,200 Pennsylvanians—will attend the National Convention of the American Legion in San Antonio, Texas, October 8-12, former State Commander H. E. Hollenback announced today.

The Legoinnaires will be accompanied by the 60 piece band of the Herbert Paul Lentz Post of Allentown and the 55 piece bugle and drum corps of the Frankford Post of Philadelphia.

Pennsylvania's delegation will introduce several major resolutions regarding the disabled men and orphans of world war veterans. The Keystone State's representatives also will vote against any increase in national dues and do their utmost to elect Rabbi Herman J. Beck of Pottsville to the office of national chaplain, Hollenback said.

Famous French Painter Will Seek Beauty In United States

PARIS, Oct. 1.—Gustave Brisgand, the eminent French portraitist, believes that it is in the New World that he will find the ideal type of modern feminine beauty.

He emphasizes the adjective "modern" because he holds that nothing is more changing than fashions in feminine pulchritude.

The Venus of Milo may have been the "Miss Greece" of her day, and as a piece of statuary she still has her admirers. However, few modern women attempt to imitate her waitline. Nor is it necessary to go back to the days of B. C. to find examples or ideal female types that have passed out of the picture. There was once a Gibson girl that won the heart of the world—but where is she now?

M. Brisgand, who has gained fame for painting pretty women and has won medals for his nudes in the Paris salon, believes that one reason why American girls probably have the bulge on the girls of Europe in this year of grace 1928 is that as a rule they have better legs. That is an opinion hazarded before his departure—he has never been in the United States until now—but it is based on observations along the Paris boulevards, where this summer the displays of American underpinning have been especially numerous.

In other days, Mr. Brisgand explains, the art of the portraitist consisted largely in painting scenery—an enormous and elaborate gown, from which protruded timidly a pretty face, a pair of delicate hands and a couple of dainty feet.

Today the outer garment clings—what there is of it—to the form, and legs are almost as important a feature as the face itself. So it takes a new type of woman to satisfy the critical eye of the artist—and where better to look for it than in athletic America?

Visiting Royal Families Make Trouble For Police

Princes Bother Capital Officers More Than Paupers Do

Wales Is One Of The Easiest Princes To Care For, Say Fly Cops

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Washington Correspondent for Central Press and New Castle News.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—The Prince of Piedmont is talking of visiting the United States.

This would be a great event.

First-class princes, on the active list, are scarce in these days of reorganized government in so many of the old-time monarchies.

His Highness of Piedmont is one of the world's major royalties. When King Victor Emmanuel dies, his son, young Piedmont, will occupy the Italian throne—if Premier Mussolini approves, of course.

Hardly an heir apparent, but the Prince of Wales ranks young Humbert of Piedmont in importance—and perhaps Prince Chichibu of Japan.

Prince Alfonso of Spain is distinctly of secondary consequence.

Small fry, such as Princess Juliana of Holland and the Duke of Brabant, next in line in Belgium, are almost nowhere.

Upon the state department will fall the awful responsibility of entertaining the Prince of Piedmont, and looking after him generally, if he does come.

Naturally the department's experts on the subject already are giving the matter their best consideration.

They are not by any means frightened at the prospect. The Prince of Wales himself has been numbered among their visitors, and so has Chichibu—Wales a couple of times, in fact. Having provided satisfactorily for Wales' and Chichibu's comfort and welfare, it is unlikely that they will fall down on Piedmont. Still, such guests are not to be received lightly.

Visiting royalty in the land is a good deal of a load on the government's mind, and no joke.

Aside from all the ceremonial and formality involved, it would be a heck of a note if some wild-eyed radical were to take a shot, or a jab, or chuck a pineapple at one of these notables, on tour in our midst.

Consequently the most elaborate sort of protection has to be provided.

The secret service folk sweat blood whenever they have a job of the kind on their hands, the state department is all of a twitter and everybody is more or less anxious until it is over with.

Some princes are easier to watch over than others.

Wales is one of the easy ones. He has a trick of shutting himself up in a closed automobile and driving so fast that nobody realizes he is in the neighborhood until his car is already disappearing in the distance.

It just suits the fly cops, but it spoils the prince as a spectacle for the gasping multitude.

Queen Marie of Roumania drove the dicks nearly crazy when she was here. Her visit was a regular jamboree. Crowds mobbed her every time she showed herself—and she was always showing herself. There was not a minute without danger of an unpleasant "incident" all the while she was in America. Marie evidently liked it, but it nearly gave the state department nervous prostration—tha Roumanian legation also.

King Fuad of Egypt recently let it be known that he would accept an invitation to drop in on President Coolidge—on certain conditions.

The conditions related to the form of entertainment Fuad wanted.

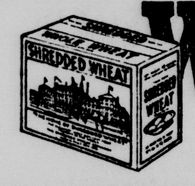

Solomon in all his glory can hardly have received the Queen of Sheba in fancier style than his majesty suggested for his own benefit, during his proposed stay on this side of the water.

A mobilization of the bulk of the United States army, to give him an opportunity to review it, in his best bib and tucker, was just one rather minor item on the program he had in mind for himself.

The state department has discreetly deferred thus far from extending the invitation.

AMERICA:
Hoover Made the World Grateful to Her.

In choosing a president we could find no other American who stands so high in the esteem of humanity, or who is in a better position to work for international good will than Herbert Hoover. Wherever he has gone on his errands of mercy, he has earned the gratitude of millions of people, and that gratitude has rebounded to the glory of his native land. Children that Hoover saved are growing into manhood and womanhood with the memory of the debt they owe to our country and to Hoover. The consciousness of this obligation will keep them friendly to America. It will do much to avert war when international misunderstandings arise. Hoover has been an ambassador of good will.

Boy Gets Letter From Dead Father

Dead Man Wrote For Boys' Birthdays; And One For Marriage

CAMDEN, N. J., Oct. 1.—A third letter, giving advice and counsel, was received by "Dickie" Stevenson of Vineland, N. J., from his dead father yesterday, when the lad became eight years old.

His father, John S. Stevenson, was recorder at Vinelyand at the time of his death in March, 1926. He served with the 28th division in France, and was so badly gassed that he was convinced he would never live to see his boy grow to manhood.

So he wrote a series of letters to be delivered on each each of his son's birthdays, and one for delivery when "Dickie" is married. The letters have been entrusted to a friend not known to the boy or his mother.

Erie Woman Will Work For Hoover

Mrs. Helen M. Schluraff To Direct Campaign Among Women Voters

By ARTHUR C. WIMER
Special Washington News Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 1.—Mrs. Helen M. Schluraff of Erie will direct the Hovoer-Curtis campaign among business and professional women of Pennsylvania, the Republican national committee has announced.

Miss Mary Stewart, director of the Business and Professional Women's bureau of the national committee, has appointed Mrs. Schluraff Pennsylvania state leader of her department. Mrs. Schluraff will conduct the campaign in the Keystone state that will make a special appeal for Hoover-Curtis support to teachers, nurses, clerical workers, lawyers, shop-owners and similar occupational groups of the state, Miss Stewart states.

Pennsylvania is plainly an enigma to Herbert Hoover and officials of the national committee, and G. O. P. steersmen plan to direct special efforts to win the woman vote of the state for the Republican nominees.

Where Is the Fat of Yesterday?

Have you noted how fast excess fat, with men and women, has disappeared in late years? Slender figures are the rule. Think what millions have gained in youth and beauty, health and vigor by that change.

A great factor has been a discovery made some 25 years ago. Medical research found a cause of excess fat. It lies in weakness of a gland which largely controls nutrition. Too much of the food goes to fat.

Modern physicians in treating obesity now feed that gland substance. And that is the main factor embodied in Marmola prescription tablets.

Marmola was perfected by a famous medical laboratory. Its chief factor is a gland food. People have used it for over 20 years—millions of boxes of it. Users have told the results to others—the loss in weight, the gain in health and vigor. Thus, year by year, the use has grown to very large proportions. In the past year alone it has doubled.

The results are seen everywhere. Excess fat has been banished to a large degree.

Every box of Marmola contains the formula, also the scientific reasons for results. When fat departs and new vigor comes, you know exactly why. No hard work, no starvation. Just take four tablets daily until weight comes down to normal.

Try this method which for over 20 years has brought new joys to so many. You owe that to yourself. Watch the gradual loss of fat. Enjoy the new energy that comes. You will be delighted. Don't wait longer. Get Marmola now.

Marmola prescription tablets are sold by all druggists at $1 per box. If your druggist is out, he will get them at once from his jobber.

For More Uniform Heat
Burn Youngstown Domestic COKE
coal in its most efficient form

Coke burns with a slower, steadier bed of flame, giving off an even uniform heat that keeps the temperature in the home appreciably more uniform. It requires less attention than coal—fewer trips to the furnace, less bother with drafts, and less stoking and shaking down.

Coke is cleaner—it burns without soot or smoke and is free from the grimy dust of coal which sifts through the house and is constantly tracked upstairs.

With coke you have abundant, uniform warmth with less furnace tending labor and a new degree of heating cleanliness. It is the ideal solid fuel for house-heating, as experience will convince you. 'Phone your dealer and order a supply of Youngstown Domestic Coke now.

Near Crashes, Aimless Turns In Fog And Darkness Are Some Of Local Fliers' Experiences

Bradford And Merritt Forced To Land On Mountains During Night

Rocket Misses Crash In Sierra Blanca Mountains By Inches During Fog

Days of intense excitement, nights of sleeplessness, experiences of near crashes which would have resulted in death, lost in a rattlesnake infested district in the Sierra Blanca mountains in Texas, a nose dive near the ground and avalanching for two miles down a step slope of the mountain; these are some of the experiences of Raymond Meritt pilot of the "Tin City Rocket" New Castle's entry in the coast to coast air derby and D. Roy Bradford, owner of the plane.

Bradford and Merritt landed in Los Angeles in the long first race without a mishap. Mr. Bradford attended several air conferences, met Col. Charles Lindbergh and then started the race back to Cincinnati.

All went well with the Rocket and the local men in the second race until they were 70 miles on this side of Tucson, Arizona. They were flying at an altitude of 8,500 feet when the motor choked, gave a long gasp and nearly died. They were over territory where a forced landing of any sort would have meant sure death. They retraced their steps back to Tucson for repairs. Upon their return at the identical place the engine nearly died again.

The fliers limped their lame plane into El Paso some 160 miles where they stopped to overhaul the plane and make the necessary repairs. They arrived here despite their halt, in second place just 29 minutes behind Holman.

They soon left El Paso for Albiene as they were told by army officials at El Paso that they would reach that point easily before running into the storm. However after they had gone but 35 minutes they were in the midst of a terrible storm.

The plane was tossed about like a leaf and only with difficulty did Merritt keep it in the air. The fliers went up some 1,500 feet further in the air in an attempt to get out of the storm.

All was dense fog and the fliers were able to see nothing. All at once a mountain wall loomed in front. "Merritt turned the plane upside down in an effort to miss it" said Bradford. "I never have seen such quick work."

The fliers knew it was sure death to attempt to fly over the mountains in that fashion. They went down and down. The plane did a nose dive until it reached nearly to what the fliers thought was level ground. Finally Merritt recovered and righted the plane barely avoiding a crash.

With Bradford watching for the ground and calling directions the plane landed. However it was on a steep slope and the plane went on the wheels down over the steep slope bumpety bump for two miles.

They finally stopped in a little valley between several ridges of the Sierra Blanca's. Bradford watched the plane, Merritt started blindly for a town. He finally reached a town of Kent containing two houses and 12 persons which was 10 miles distant.

It was raining and freezing at the time, pitch dark and in a country in which rattlesnakes are common. Merritt finally reached town and returned by 9 o'clock in the morning. They finally succeeded in getting the plane out of the valley and back to Kent where Bradford ate his first bite in 26 hours.

They then flew to Texarkana where upon landing on a race track the wheel struck a rut and turned the plane up over on its nose. However, there was no serious injury done to the plane and after getting it out of the deep hole the fliers again started on their route to Cincinnati where they finished in third place.

With regards to the first race Bradford stated that one never knew where they stood in the race and not until it had been over for a week were they sure who had been victorious.

Flying fields were as far as 30 miles from cities and again a quick trip was made in to obtain foodstuffs there was not a spare moment on the whole trip.

"It was a wonderful trip" stated Mr. Bradford this morning to the reporter; "despite the terrible strain of the race it was a lot of fun and I'd start another one tomorrow."

HIRAM BOY FIRST FOOTBALL DEATH

HIRAM, O., Oct. 1.—Football claimed its first fatality of the 1928 season in Ohio Sunday when Ross Taylor, 16, halfback on the Hiram high school team, died of injuries received in a game with Mantua high school on September 15.

Young Taylor died of an injury to his spine, coupled with possible abdonimal injuries.

Forced to leave the Mantua game Taylor was not thought to have been seriously hurt until the Wednesday following the game on Friday. He was then taken to the Ravenna hospital, where an X-ray examination was made. Physicians did not believe his injuries of a grave nature and he was taken back to his home in Hiram.

Young Taylor was the son of Mrs C. P. Taylor, and besides his mother leaves three sisters and three brothers.

As a result of Taylor's death Principal N. E. Bingham of the Hiram school has ordered all the team's games cancelled for this season.

Authorities Urge Citizens To Keep Money Out Of "Special Deliveries"

New Castle postal authorities issued a statement today cautioning local residents against the custom of placing loose money in special delivery dispatches.

"The department provides the money order and the registered letter for such purposes" said an official this morning. "It is desired that patrons use these." Speedy delivery is the concern of postal attaches with regard to special delivery letters or packages while safety is the main thought when a registered letter is concerned. The special receives little of the registered letter protection.

"Utmost protection is given a registerer" one of the authorities continued. "Each postal clerk is held responsible for its safe delivery while in his hand."

Plane Pilot Is Held By Police Following Crash

Pilot Takes Two Girls Up For Ride And Crash Occurs, Injuring Two

OFFICER FINDS PLANE UNSUITABLE

Accident Happens Near Greensburg Sunday; Girls In Hospital

(International News Service)

GREENSBURG, Pa., Oct. 1.—Sergeant A. J. Oldham of the state highway patrol said he expected to make information today against Charles Spanko, 30, pilot of the airplane which crashed near here yesterday and causing injuries to Spanko and two girl passengers, Mary Fedak, 20, and her sister, Josephine, 18, today.

Sergeant Oldham, who is conducting an investigation of the crash, said he will charge the aviator with violation of the state aeronautics act. Oldham said Spanko has no pilot's license and had a plane unsuitable for stunting.

Spanko took the Fedak sisters up from the West Penn flying field, which he manages, at New Alexandria, near here. A half-mile from the field, the plane went into a tailspin when Spanko attempted to make a sharp bank and crashed to the farm of J. H. Shields. The young women were extricated from the wreckage. Spanko, dazed, was wandering away from the wreckage when rescuers arrived.

The Fedak sisters were in a hospital here today, where Josephine was suffering from a fractured ankle and body bruises. Mary sustained a fracture of the leg, a dislocated ankle and possible internal injuries. Spanko suffered cuts on the face and body bruises.

Sergeant Oldham declared his investigation revealed that Spanko's plane was a slow-speed type unsuitable for sharp banking or other sudden maneuvers.

Record Moving Day Predicted As 175,000 Cliff Dwellers Seek New Dwellings In Annual Rush

By RUBY WEIL
Staff Writer for Central Press and New Castle News.

NEY YORK, Oct. 1—East side, west side, all around the town—are evidences that New York is on its annual trek. Nowhere else does moving day reach the proportions it does in this city of apartment dwellers.

The peak comes Oct. 1, when the floating population conscripts every possible conveyance to augment the huge fleet of moving vans. But for several weeks before and after the first, the city's "cliff dwellers" are busy exchanging the defects of one apartment for the somewhat different defects of another.

It has been predicted that this year's migration will surpass that of the record-breaking year of 1920, when 160,000 families joined the procession. The figure may reach 175,000 this year, according to estimates. So great is the expected rush that the Van Owners' association of

SOME MOVE TO LARGER QUARTERS

Greater New York fears it will be the middle of October before many families are able to obtain moving vans.

Van Rates Jump.

However, not all of the movers wait for vans. The more economical and the more ingenious find ways to avoid the $12 to $15 an hour—exclusive of tips—demanded during the height of the season. Taxis pushcarts, small wagons and private automobiles are called into service by harassed apartments dwellers. In Greenwich Village a not uncommon sight is that of young men and women on foot carrying as much of their household goods as possible.

Where are they going, these thousands of individuals and families? Why are they going through the inconvenience and expense of moving?

Some want larger quarters, or smaller. Others, following the "cycle of New York", are moving to more fashionable neighborhoods, now they have acquired a little wealth. Changing neighborhoods, too, are those who are seeking greater convenience, or less noise, or better values. And some merely are obeying a restless urge to find a new nest.

Purse Must Be Satisfied.

This finds many apartments available to fit almost any purse—except that so slim it will hardly cover the rent of the comparatively few one-room apartments at $40 a month or less. These can be had after diligent search; one-room apartments are always at a premium, and are comparatively higher priced than larger places.

But more than the purse must be satisfied. Each apartment-seeker has his special demands, as landlords, wild-eyed by the end of the season, will testify. In Greenwich Village are artistic men and maidens who will walk a mile for a fireplace. They pass the large buildings with their elaborate foyers and uniformed doormen without a glance; or if they look, it is only to express their dislike of the invasion of the Village by these standard apartments. It is an invasion they are helpless to halt; with property assessments going up more and more of the charming old houses of the Village are being replaced by large buildings which can be made to yield a good profit to their owners.

Offsetting the fireplace hunters are careful housewives who insist upon electric refrigeration and incinerators. Then there are the social climbers to whom the appearance of the apartment lobby, the snobbishness of the doormen and the number of bath rooms are gauges of the desirability of an apartment.

Roof Dwellings Popular.

With the increasing use of New York's roofs for living purposes, there is an increasing demand for penthouse apartments, or at least for roof gardens. Although usually these are reserved for the very affluent, occasionally a person of moderate means makes a "find". Even a tree in the backyard is a matter for rejoicing; too often it is a series of washlines that provides scenery.

SOME MOVE TO MORE RITZY NEIGHBORHOODS

But with all the apartments of all varieties available, each seeker spends days and weeks before he finds the place that just answers his needs. In the last frantic days before leases expire, those who still have found no new home forget many of their requirements in their efforts to lease some sort of shelter.

Then, after the moving is all over the new shelves put up, the extra bits of painting done, the furniture

AND SOME MOVE JUST TO SATISFY A RESTLESS URGE

all in place, the process of disillusionment begins. The perfectly adorable fireplace smokes; the cleverly concealed radiators give out erratic heat; the enchanting green walls peel—moving day is hardly forgotten before thousands wonder why they moved. But they'll do it again next year.

RACE WITH TRAIN TO CROSSING IS FATAL TO THREE

Driver Of Auto Near Erie Thought He Would Beat Freight

ERIE, Pa., Oct. 1.—Three persons, two of them of Erie, were killed Sunday afternoon when an automobile in which they were riding stalled on the path of a speeding Pennsylvania Railroad passenger train at Sampson station, south of this city.

The dead are:

W. E. Colkitt, 201 Peach street, Erie.

Gaylord Neithamer, 1164 E. 39th street, Erie.

W. E. Colkitt was the driver of the death car, it was revealed by Coroner Dan Hanley of Erie.

Colkitt and Neithamer had left home here shortly after dinner for a ride. The two had stopped at the Eisaman filling station, near Sampson station, and had offered Zimmer a lift.

In an attempt to beat what Colkitt believed was a freight train over the crossing, he stalled his motor in the path of the train, the car being ground to bits.

Agency Presidents Will Meet Tuesday

Community Chest Will Name Division Leaders And Team Captains

A meeting of all the presidents of the 10 agencies which go to make up the New Castle Community Chest has been called for Tuesday morning, Oct. 2, at 10:30, announces Herbert Peairs, director of this year's campaign. The meeting will take place in the board of directors room of the New Castle Chamber of Commerce.

The agencies which will be represented at the meeting are the Almira Home, the Associated Charities, the Red Cross, the Boy Scouts, the Margaret Henry Home, the New Castle hospital, the Shenango Valley hospital, the Salvation Army, the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A.

This is the first meeting of the present campaign, states Herbert Peairs, director of the coming drive, and it is important that all presidents be in attendance, for at this time a division ledear representing each individual agency will be selected and 14 team captains. Later in the campaign the soliciting teams will be built about the team captains.

"Like last year, we shall use the point system in the coming campaign," Mr. Peairs pointed out. "Failure to attend all of the meetings will penalize the agency, as will failure to work."

The slogan contest, it is stated, is coming along nicely. Many slogans are already at the Chest headquarters on the third floor of the Greer building. Contestants are notified that all slogans must be brought to the headquarters of the Chest. In no case should they be mailed in. The contest closes Wednesday, Oct. 10.

Legion Of Honor To Meet Tuesday

Will Discuss Activities At Special Meeting Called By Captain Craig

A special meeting of the Consistory Legion of Honor has been called for Tuesday evening, Oct. 2, at eight o'clock at the Cathedral, announces Captain Melvin L. Craig, commander of the Legion.

The Legion, states Captain Craig, has been called upon to take its place among the working organizations of the Cathedral Association and the meeting is necessary because the membership of the Legion must express their individual opinions as to how the activities should be handled.

A special request is made that all out-of-the-city members be present.

POLITICAL INFORMATION FOR WOMEN

What a splendid thing it would be if as a patriotic service we could have every bell in New Castle ring, every whistle blow, calling the people out to vote on November 6, election day.

The women are working hard for a 100 per cent registration and vote. Why not have every flag floating to the breeze on election day.

If this country was rent asunder wtih a great civil war every man and woman of us would offer our services to the nation. Peace time service is just as valuable, but we must register before we can vote just as we must enlist before we can join the army.

Saturday, October 6, is the last day to register for this presidential election. If you do not have a county or state tax receipt, October 6 is the last day to pay taxes to be eligible to vote in the 1928 election.

Every club woman should feel it her duty to see that her neighbor has the necessary information. Let us remember that our neighbor means more than the woman next door. Invite some woman to go with you to the polls, that one vote may be the one necessary to put over your candidate.

BELLA A. TAYLOR,
Chairman Legislative Committee of Lawrence County Federation of Women's Clubs.

Enjoy This Winter

The Warm Comforts of a Southern Home

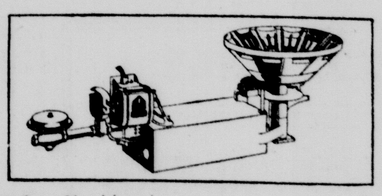

PLEASANT hospitable warmth indoors—all day long—from early Fall until late Spring time—can be yours by simply filling in the coupon here for full information about the Surface Combustion Gas House Heating Machine. For once you know all about this marvelous new, tested heating machine, which can be installed in any type of house heating furnace or boiler, you'll want it and want it immediately. Once installed, you're forever freed from shoveling coal, ashes, making fire, banking it; from soot, dirt and all the unnecessary burden of furnace tending.

LIGHT THE PILOT—SET THE THERMOSTAT—THAT'S ALL

Light the pilot in the Fall, set the thermostat to the desired temperature you wish to maintain, and your home will be automatically heated all winter long without further attention on your part. Next Spring when you're ready to open doors and windows, shut off the pilot and your furnace work is over. Meanwhile you've enjoyed extra hours with the radio, reading, or your hobby.

Not A Burner—Quickly Installed—Portable

It's not a gas burner but a self-contained machine which slips into your furnace or boiler as easily as a drawer into a table. Installation takes less than a half day. Should you wish to move to another location, the Surface Combustion Machine is easily removed and transported.

Before Ordering Your Winter's Fuel—Investigate

Over 1000 customers in this section changed over last year from other fuel to gas. This year many more will do so. So before ordering your coal and work, investigate Surface Combustion Heating. Note the low cost, cash $175; or $15 down and the balance in 18 months, $185 in all.

Gold Coaster Gives Singers $500 For One Song; Tips Waiter $1,000

SALTED CIGARETTES IS CITY'S NEW FAD

By IONE QUINBY
Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to New Castle News

CHICAGO, Sept. 1.—Gossip from the big town's main street: A prominent young Gold Coaster was reported throwing greenbacks about in a sensational, flamboyant manner the other day that would have put Harry K. Thaw in the shade. He handed out $10,000 in gifts of $500 each to the butterfly songsters who sang "I Love You, Pretty Boy," and tipped the waiter $1,000. He gave a particularly chic Russian dancing girl $2,000 and left the rest of a snug little fortune with the cigaret girls. Friends thought of sending him to the Psychopathic hospital 'til he explained that he won the $20,000 on a wheel in one of those smart dine-and-dance-and-gamble places. "I valued my life too much to leave the joint with all their money," he said.

What has become of the famous silver dollars which once graced the floor of the Palmer house barber shop? This is a query I have had several times of late. The history of these dollars, and the final nine that are left is nothing short of intriguing. During the World's Fair in '93 these dollars caused considerable comment, and not a few were pried loose and taken away as souvenirs. Both Kipling and Mark Twain commented upon them in their writings.

As the dollars were stolen, or became lost, it was impossible to replace them, on account of a new law which forbade the use of American money in this manner. When the barber shop floor was taken up some time ago, most of the silver dollars left had worn paper thin. Many had worked loose and fallen prey to persons who needed just that bit "to pay the barber." Of the nine now in existence, all of which are in the hands of the Palmer family and officials of the hotel, only three are in condition for the dates to be read. They are of the issue of 1875.

Folks who salt their apples, peaches and watermelons will now have a rest from the persistent razzing of those persons who can't understand a yen for salt. Salting the tips of cigarets is the latest salt fad. A gentleman from Chattanooga is said to have started it, but it has spread like wildfire here. Everybody's carrying cigaret salts—not smelling salts!

While the community is more or less orderly, rascals creep in once in awhile. A dishonest man, one who was neither deaf nor dumb, crashed the gates at a party in the village recently and stole a diamond ring from the hostess. He talked the lip language and the woman giving the party thought he was "one of them." He was arrested and the matter taken to court. An interpreter for the deaf and dumb aided the judge. During the proceedings the interpreter was obliged to tell the crowd not to all talk at once. Dozens of fingers fluttered in the air until it was a bedlam of pantomime.

Democratic Editors To Support Hoover

Three Pennsylvania Papers Are Among The 87 To Turn Republican

By ARTHUR C. WIMER.
Special Washington News Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C. Oct. 1—Editors of three Democratic newspapers of Pennsylvania are listed among the scores of editors of Independent and Democratic newspapers in all sections of the country who have declared themselves in favor of Herbert Hoover's election as president it was announced by the Republican National committee today.

Up to date there are 86 such papers whose editors have announced this decision, the committee has been informed. These are scattered through 15 states, three of them being located in Pennsylvania, it is said at committee headquarters.

The shifts in this direction of Hoover in Pennsylvania are announced by the committee as follows: Harrisburg Patriot, Harrisburg; Harrisburg Evening News, Harrisburg and the York Gazette of York.

Anyone who thinks peace has come to stay would do well to compare the newspaper space Secretary Kellogg attained recently in Europe with that accorded Gene Tunney.—The Lansing State Journal.

Will Distribute Game Law Bulletin

Contains Synopsis Of Game Laws In 47 States; Supply Limited

By ARTHUR C. WIMER.
Special Washington News Correspondent.

WASHINGTON D. C. Oct. 1—"Game Laws for the Season 1928-29," an official bulletin that should be highly useful to thousands of sportsmen of New Castle and Lawrence county, has been compiled by the United States department of agriculture and is now ready for distribution.

The bulletin contains a synopsis of Pennsylvania and the other forty-seven states as well as federal regulations. The outstanding information presented is the summary of laws relating to seasons, licenses, limits, possession, interstate transportation and sale of game. All changes and modifications in past codes are noted in this recent bulletin.

Teh game law bulletin is being distributed to law enforcement officials, conservationists and sportsmen, but federal officials are anxious that every hunter in the country receive the bulletin and for this reason a supply will be distributed by the department of agriculture direct to those who send in requests to the department's headquarters here.

"The bulletin presents a concise but detailed synopsis of federal and state game codes and should be highly useful to every sportsman of New Castle who plans to hunt in his own or other states" a spokesman of the agriculture department asserted in commenting on the bulletin.

The supply of the bulletin is limited and New Castle sportsmen should address their requests to the department immediately.

GAINED GLORIOUS HEALTH THRU USE OF NEW KONJOLA

Rundown System Invigorated By This Medicine; Also Ended All His Severe Ailments.

MR. JOHN SOMTAG

The amazing manner in which this new Konjola medicine has restored thousands of people to health after many years suffering from disorders of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels has not only become the talk of the drug and medical trades of this section but is also the subject of much interest to the general public. The Konjola Man at the Love and Megown drug store, 204 East Washington street, this city, is daily explaining the merits of this medicine to large crowds of people. A steady stream of voluntary indorsements are received from former sufferers and among the latest to indorse Konjola is Mr. John Somtag, 911 Maryland avenue, New Castle, who made the following statement:

"I am publicly indorsing Konjola because I know what this medicine will do", said Mr. Somtag. "It has restored my health at a time when I felt sure nothing would ever give me the slightest relief.

"Some time ago I was taken sick with a severe case of influenza and when I had recovered from this sickness it seemed to me that my entire system was left in a very run-down condition. My whole body was a mass of aches and pains and nothing that I would ever do for relief helped me the least bit. It was almost impossible for me to get to sleep at night because my nerves were so upset I would roll and toss on my bed for hours. I steadily lost weight and strength until I was a mere shell of my former self. Then my kidneys became affected and I was forced to rise several times every night due to frequent bladder action and all during the day I was subject to severe pains across the small of my back that really made life miserable for me. I was quite discouraged because I thought my case was beyond hope and I would go through the rest of my life in this condition.

"But since I have taken Konjola everything is different and this medicine has made such a vast improvement in my condition that I can hardly realize I am the same person. It did not take a great quantity to produce the results I tried so long and hard to obtain. I have just completed the second bottle and I want to tell everyone that my health is all that I ever hoped it to be. I can go to sleep the minute I get in bed and I never wake up until the next morning. All the aches and pains have disappeared and I am steadily gaining in weight and strength. My kidneys are so much stronger that the night risings are things of the miserable past and those pains across my back never come over me. I have a keener enjoyment in the daily activities and am always filled with energy and ambition. It is a pleasure to indorse such a medicine and I know that others will gain the same benefits that I did if they will only give this medicine a fair trial".

The Konjola Man is at the Love and Megown Drug Store, 204 East Washington Street, New Castle, where he is daily meeting the public and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy.

Konjola contains juices from 22 plants—more than other medicines. It is a new compound that works with the sufferer's food, restoring more healthful action to the important organs (stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels) and producing new energy and glorious health in a natural way, thru the entire inner-system.

Tabernacle Is Crowded Sunday

Twenty-Five Hundred Gather For Stirring Service On Sunday Evening

EVANGELIST SPEAKS ABOUT SALVATION

Some 2500 persons packed Everybody's tabernacle, located at South Mill and Friendship streets, last night to hear the second Sabbath preaching service of Rev. C. H. Erickson, evangelist and conductor of the newly erected evangelistical tabernacle in this city.

At this service Rev. Erickson selected the theme of his sermon from Matthew, the first chapter, verse 26, having as the central thought that man's soul will not be saved by his power in amassing money and worldly goods.

Rev. Erickson stated that no man could be saved by his money. He cited many examples which tended to prove that worldly goods are of no avail when death comes to man and that all alike are taken away when the time comes, whether rich or poor.

"No man can be saved except thru his powers of reason. True, it is in the heart where salvation lies, but the mental side of man makes him reason and visulize the better things of life and consequently religion and Christianity," said Rev. Erickson.

Rev. Erickson explained that the all of man was his soul. There is nothing in the world which compares to it regardless; and he presented Bibical testimony to prove his statement.

"Man has no happiness unless he has called God and been received into his kingdom by Him," said Rev. Erickson, "and God does not refuse any man who has it in his heart to come to Him."

The service last evening was concluded by special songs by the Alliance quintet composed of colored singers of religious songs and the altar call which brought some 20 persons to the altar for special prayer.

Yesterday afternoon, more than 2000 persons attended the service which took place at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. Rev. Erickson spoke at that time on "God's Challenge to Man," wherein he explained that God offers a square challenge to man and that he asks him to accept nothing which is not logical or which cannot be proven.

There will be no service this evening at the tabernacle. Monday is reserved by Rev. Erickson and his evangelistical party for a rest day and no services take place.

However tomorrow evening at the tabernacle there will be a special healing service, the subject entitled, "Jesus Christ, the Healer of the Body." At this time there will be, with the special healing service, prayers for the sick and afflicted.

At each meeting, as in the services last evening and yesterday afternoon, the meetings are interpolated with special song numbers by the colored singers, music by individuals who have been secured by the evangelistic party for that purpose, and group singing by the entire audience.

Closing the services last evening with some special remarks and announcements, Rev. Erickson asked that it be known to all that the meetings are interdenominational and they are open to all.

Furnaces have been installed in the newly erected tabernacle which has a seating capacity of 2500 and additional weatherboarding has been nailed on the walls, thus making the meetings in Everybody's Tabernacle impregnable to the cool night air.

ELKTON, Md., Oct. 1.—The erstwhile powerful taxi-marriage mill of this city received its death blow Saturday.

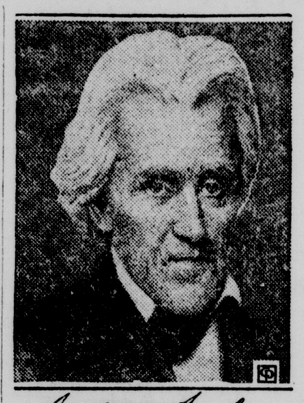

The Cecil county court ruled against an injunction suit brought by the taxi-ring seeking to restrain Ralph Andrews, clerk of the court, from sending elopers to clergymen other than the "marrying parson" employed by the taxi company.

Picking Presidents

1832: Beginning Of National Conventions

By CHARLES L. MULLIGAN

Written for Central Press and New Castle News

Andrew Jackson

Nominating conventions were an invention of Tammany Hall. As early as 1813 a gathering of the Tammany society in New York, fighting the Albany regency of DeWitt Clinton first suggested a state-wide meeting of Democrats, which the Clintonians themselves adopted in 1817. National conventions, supplanting the congressional caucus method of nominations, did not appear until 1832, when Jackson was renominated by the Democrats and Clay was named by the National Republicans, or Whigs by succesive gatherings at Baltimore. An anti-Masonic ticket was put in the field in the same city.

The Whigs had a platform, the first in history. Jackson got along very nicely without one. He was still the popular, smashing hero of the militant west, and his shouters cared not where he stood on the tariff or trade agreements.

It is important to note that Henry Clay was often the standard bearer of his party when the opposition was stiff, and the nomination was denied him when the "going was good." A vain quest of the presidency throughout nearly 40 years embittered the life of this ardent Kentuckian. He was a good campaigner, and made an excellent showing in the popular vote against Jackson—it was 687,502 to 530,209—but was snowed under in the electoral college.

This was the result of the electoral voting:

For President:
Andrew Jackson, Democrat, Tennessee 219 votes.
Henry Clay, Whig, Kentucky, 49.
John Floyd, Virginia, 11.
William Wirt anti-Masonic, Virginia, 5.

Martin Van Buren, Democrat, New York, 189.
John Sergeant, Whig, Pennsylvania, 49.
William Wilkins, Pennsylvania, 30.
Henry Lee, Massachusetts, 11
Amos Ellmaker, anti-Masonic, Pennsylvania, 7.

(This is the twelfth of a series of 35 digests of presidential campaigns. The thirteenth will be: "1836: A Good Politician, Beats a Good Soldier.")

Missionary Playlet Presented Sunday

Young People Of Highland Church Present Interesting Program

Close on to a hundred persons witnessed the presentation of "Two Business Adventures in Japan," a short missionary playlet given by the members of the senior Young People's Christian Union of the Highland U. P. church in their usual weekly meeting at the church Sunday evening.

Devotionals of the meeting were in charge of Lucille Emery. Miss Beatrice Laverick rendered a piano solo. Frank Brenneman, president of the organization, led the praise service.

A list of the characters in the play follows:

Mr. Strong—Frank Brenneman.
Mrs. Strong—Miss Beulah Ruthrauff.
Madeline Strong—Katherine Wilson.
Jack Strong—George Hogue.
Japanese Women—Mrs. T. J. McFate and Mrs. W. F. Johnston.
Japanese Children—Temoy Jane McFate, Peggy Boughter, Dorothy Burton and Jean Allen.

Superior Court To Hear Nocera Case

New Castle Case Is Advanced For Argument; Question Of Liability

According to a dispatch received by The News the superior court, sitting at Philadelphia, has advanced for argument the case of The First State bank of New Castle, second account of secretary of banking, on the appeal of Anna Nocera. The case is one in which Mrs. Nocera had entrusted certain securities to the First State bank for safe keeping. When the bank was closed and the receiver went over the assets it is claimed that the securities were missing. The question is one as to the liability of the banking department to Mrs. Nocera.

Pastor To Tell Of Recent Trip Through Europe

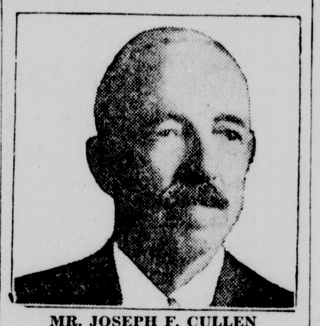

New Castle Kiwanians will hear the Rev. Samuel L. Maxwell, pastor of the Epworth M. E. church of this city, speak at their regular weekly meeting in the Elks club Wednesday, Oct. 3.

Rev. Maxwell has spoken before the organization a number of times and each address brings out more interesting experiences of his recent trip abroad. Wednesday he will speak on "My European Trip; What I Saw, Where I Saw It, and Why."

New Castle Man Surprised Way He Was Helped

Feels Fine For First Time In About Two Years; Gives Credit To Ten Herbs.

"The benefits that Ten Herbs gave me were more than I ever expected," was the recent statement of Mr. Joseph F. Cullen, 15 West South Street, New Castle, to the Ten Herbs Man, who is at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington Street, this city, where he is daily demonstrating this great natural medicine to crowds of men and women of all ages and stations in life.

MR. JOSEPH F. CULLEN

"About two years ago my digestion went back on me," continued Mr. Cullen, who is 62 years of age. "Everything I ate caused gas to form, and this made me feel as though I would vomit. For twenty minutes or half an hour every morning I would vomit a thick, black mucus, which had formed during the night. This exertion left me weak and exhausted. My liver was inactive, and I seemed to be filled with bile, causing me to have a tired feeling. My rest was broken at night by having to arise several times.

"I read about Ten Herbs and made up my mind to give it a fair trial. The relief your medicine gave me was surprising. What I wish to emphasize most is the clearing of my throat of that thick, black mucus, so that when I arise in the morning, instead of coughing, retching, or vomiting, I feel fine and ready for work. My digestion has been improved—can enjoy a regular meal without aches and pains, or other distress. I can get a good night's rest, as I have been relieved of having to arise. I feel bright and cheerful and fit for a full day's work. It is without hesitation that I recommend Ten Herbs to the public."

The Ten Herbs Man is at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington Street, this city, where he is daily meeting the public and explaining the merits of this medicine. He will be glad to tell you how to take it to get the best results.

School Students Are Made Late By Train's Schedule

(International News Service)

KITTANNING, Pa., Oct. 1.—Kittanning high school students who reside at the up-the-river points today were armed with an invulnerable high-proof alibi for tardiness.

The Pennsylvania railroad furnished the alibi. Under the proposed new schedule, effective yesterday, the "high school" train arrives at points up the river an hour later, and of necessity, then, it has been figured, it reaches Kittanning an hour later. Which means that students using that train will arrive at school after most of their classes have been heard.

Th more annual seed you can sow this autumn the less you will have to do next spring.

Byrd Expedition Takes Brookfield Butter!

Commander Richard E. Byrd knows the value of good food as a builder of strength and morale. His staunch steamships, the City of New York and the Chelsea, bound for the South Pole are carrying many products of Swift & Company.

Brookfield Butter, creamery fresh, is part of the precious cargoes — a sufficient supply for the band of hardy scientists and the crew during their long sojourn in the Antarctic.

Other Swift & Company products that will add pleasure to the meals aboard ship and on the icy wastes are:

Premium Frankfurts — Pork Loins
Calf Liver — Ox Tails — Pigs Feet
"Golden West" Fowl — Turkeys

Brookfield Butter is made in selected dairy regions and delivered to all parts of this country by quickest routes possible—fresh from the churn!

Daniel Leasure Auxiliary Meets

Plans Will Be Made For The Annual Hallowe'en Party

Regular meeting of the ladies auxiliary to Daniel Leasure camp, United Spanish American War Veterans will be held Tuesday evening at eight o'clock in the Legion Home on North Jefferson street.

At this meeting, plans will be made for the annual Hallowe'en party of the auxiliary and camp. Various committees, who will have charge of the several features of the event, will be named at this time and a full attendance of the members has been asked by the president.

Mrs. E. J. Suber, president of the auxiliary, will be general chairman of the event, while Mrs. Frank Nessle is secretary of the auxiliary and will do much of the work in connection with the event.

It is hoped to make this the banner event of the year and the biggest and best party of the kind ever attempted by the organization.

Prohibit 38 From Driving Motors

Sixty-Four Automobile Licenses Are Revoked By Highway Department

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Oct. 1.—Revocation of 64 drivers' licenses and the placing of 38 more names on the official prohibitory list was announced today by the department of highways.

There were 26 revocations for intoxication. They included William E. Llewellyn and John Norton, both of Lancaster, and George E. Kemmerer of Allentown.

The license of George H. Burger of Allentown was revoked on a charge of bribery.

The list of those who cannot obtain licenses for at least one year included 27 who have been convicted on charges of larceny. Practically all of them were from Philadelphia and Pittsburgh where police have been making efforts to break up well organized bands of automobile thieves.

Second Victory Of Season For Ellwood High School Team

Hardfought Battle With Zelienople Results In Score Of 13 To 6

Justine Stars In Saturday's Game, Making Both Touchdowns For Ellwood

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 1.—Flashing a brilliant offensive attack and a rugged defense, Coach Todd Loyd's Zelienople High school team held Ellwood City down to two touchdowns, in the game played at Zelienople Saturday. Using the "Bo McMillan" style of play, Loyd's team surprised with a pass on the first from scrimmage, and Nesbitt raced 78 yards for a touchdown. Ellwood braced up after this and succeeded in scoring two touchdowns, one in the first and one in the second quarters. Justine made both for the local team.

It was a hard fought battle, from start to finish, but was marred by frequent fumbles and poor officiating. Ellwood's line held when the goal line was in danger, but in the middle of the field Zelienople showed plenty in the way of forward passes and end runs. In the last quarter Ellwood pulled some nice end runs and also broke up Zelienople's aerial attack. It was discovered that Zelienople has a wonderful quartet of speed merchants in Nesbit, Evans, Harper and Theis.

Justine and King led Ellwood's attack, Justine making both touchdowns, but greatly helped by King and his consistent gains in the midfield. King also starred on the defense. Griffiths, who played his first game on the local team, performed like a veteran, with Smith also playing well.

Ellwood's second touchdown came in the second quarter after a 63 yard gain down the field. After Laurence had returned Evans' punt, from the 20 yard line, to the 37, two line bucks by King and Justine, each good for four yards, and a double pass from Justine to Fanno made five yards. King gained 9 yards in two tries and Justine added 8 for a first down. Ellwood was penalized five yards for offside. Then King was good for 6 yards in two plunges and Justine completed the play, making the second touchdown for Ellwood.

Lineup:

Ellwood City 13		Zelienople 6
Turner	L. E.	Dambach
Welsh	L. T.	Zeigler
Rocco	L. G.	Bicker
Smith	C.	Frankenstein
Smilek	R. G.	Shaffer
Griffiths	R. T.	Graham
Slobojan	R. E.	Ifft
Fanno	Q. B.	Evans
Justine	L. H.	Harper
Lawrence	R. H.	Theis
King	F. B.	Nesbit

Substitutions: for Ellwood W. Jones, Segedi and Duncan. For touchdowns, Justine 2 and Nesbit 1. Point after touchdown, Fanno. Referee, Sheers; Umpire, Nolan, Head linesman, Sterrit.

M. A. Bickett Talks To Class

Organization Of Fellowship Night At Christian Church Wednesday

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 1.—M. A. Bickett, member of the state legislature, was the speaker at the monthly meeting of the Loyal Men's Bible class of the Christian church Saturday evening.

A large crowd attended the meeting and Mr. Bickett gave an interesting talk on "Procedure of Legislation", tracing the course of a bill or law through the various stages in the "house", revealing several heretofore unknown facts concerning state laws. To the layman, who is unable to study law in the making, the talk was particularly enlightening.

Something new in the line of class assemblage is being started in the Christian church Wednesday of this week, with the "Fellowship Night". On that night all organized classes will meet in the church, all working together for the betterment of the church itself. The meeting will open with a dinner at 6:30, at which time members of the Progressive class will serve. Members of the Men's Bible class will present a program, there will be a teacher training class conducted by Rev. Huffer, a workers' conference and the devotions conducted by Mrs. Retta Maskrey.

Impressive Harvest Home Service At Lutheran Church

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 1.—A gorgeous array of fall flowers and tempting looking fall vegetables and fruit crowded the altar of the Trinity Lutheran church Sunday morning, making an impressive background for the truths driven home by Rev. Baker in his sermon. He defined the difference between a Harvest Home Service and the annual Thanksgiving service, stating that the former gave thanks for blessings of the earth, such as fruit and grain, where the latter gave thanks for blessings in general.

A quartet composed of Mrs. Henry Schenk, Miss Mary Booher, P. W. Biocher and Robert Taylor rendered a beautiful quartet number entitled "Holy Holy Holy." Let Mount Zion Rejoice" a lovely anthem, was presented by the choir, completing a very beautiful and impressive service.

Activities this week in the church include:

This evening members of the church council will assemble for meeting.

Wednesday all day members of the Willing Workers society will conduct a work meeting.

Slippery Rock Church Program

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 1—Activities scheduled this week in the Slippery Rock church are announced as follows:

Wednesday all day members of the Ladies Aid society will conduct a meeting in the church. On the same day many members of the Missionary society will attend the district meeting of the Presbyterial conducted in New Castle at the Central Presbyterian church. Delegates planning to attend are Mrs. Jesse Weingartner and Mrs. Paul Elliott.

Special preparatory services for communion will be conducted Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week at the church. Members of the Young People's council will conduct Tuesday's meeting; Wednesday's will be in charge of the Men's club, and Rev. Rohrbaugh of Volant will conduct the Thursday and Friday night services. Communion will be observed Sunday morning.

Mrs. Carpenter Is Club Hostess

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 1.—Mrs. J. Reed Carpenter of Fifth street, entertained the members of the Young Matrons' club and a few special guests Saturday afternoon at a 1 o'clock luncheon. The small tables were centered with a pretty decorative effect of orchid and green, and covers were laid for sixteen.

At the conclusion of a delicious menu, four tables of bridge were in play, with Mrs. W. F. Kegel and Mrs. E. C. Wright capturing the club prize and Mrs. John Dunn, Jr., and Mrs. H. D. Patterson, the special guest gifts.

Special guests enjoying the affair were: Mesdames William Hawes of New Castle, Ralph Adams, H. D. Patterson, Kenneth Fox, Tom Boyd, John Dunn, Jr., William Pugh and Oscar Dahl. Mrs. Robert Forbes will entertain October 9 at her home on Glenn avenue.

BELL MEMORIAL

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 1—Activities of the Bell Memorial church this week are:

Tuesday evening members of the building committee will meet in the church. The personnel of that committee includes John Clyde, chairman; Tom Marshall, H. A. Donaldson, F. D. Buquo, M. A. Bickett, W. B. Scott, H. D. Cunningham and F. S. Iseman.

Rally Day Is Well Attended At Presbyterian

Rally Day Promotes Many Classes And Awarded Merit Pins In Local Church

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 1. — The auditorium of the First Presbyterian church was crowded for the annual Rally Day service Sunday morning. Ten little members of the Cradle Roll were thrilled over being promoted into the beginners class, as were twenty beginners to graduate into the Junior department. The church rustled with vari-colored taffeta hair-ribbons, and white frocks, causing the usual Rally Day stir.

Monday, there will be a meeting of the Young Womens Missionary Society at the home of Mrs. Clifford Swick.

Tuesday the Week-Day Religious Education Association banquet in the dining room of the church.

Wednesday all day there is the meeting of the New Castle and Ellwood district of the Womens Presbyterial, at the Central Presbyterian church of New Castle, Mrs. Hudnut of Youngstown, will be the principal speaker.

There will be no prayer meeting this week owing to the fact that Rev. Stevenson and several members of the congregation will motor to the Beaver Presbyterial meeting at Rochester, to hear the moderator, Dr. Hugh Walker, of California, speak.

Friday there will be a preparatory service in the church, prior to the serving of the Holy Sacrament Sunday.

Anti-Saloon Head Speaks On Liquor

Liquor Trust Subsidizes Many Associations, Says The Rev. Tope

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 1.—That the efforts to break down the enforcement of the 18th amendment and lead to its subsequent repeal are subsidized by the brewers, the distillers, groups of bartenders and others interested in the liquor traffic, was the message brought to the members of the Bell Memorial Presbyterian church Sunday morning by the Rev. Homer W. Tope, state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League.

The Rev. Tope contrasted the position of Governor Alfred E. Smith with the statements of Herbert Hoover.

"The drys will meet the wet program of the Association Opposed to the Prohibition Amendment as accepted and advocated by Governor Smith in the same way that they have met the same program in the past," he concluded.

Pittsburghers Enjoy Week-End

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 1.—A weekend here was enjoyed by army men from Pittsburgh, guests of Capt. Howell Jenkins of this city. A tournament at the club was enjoyed, with dinner-parties sandwiched in between the golf.

Those enjoying the visit were: Mrs. Brunt, Capt., and Mrs. William Sturgin, Lieut. Watson, Major Ringsdorf, Capt. Werner, Lieut. Kayser and Capt. Higbee, all of Pittsburgh.

ELLWOOD PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. William Scheidemantle and Mrs. William Haswell were among the local visitors who enjoyed the many attractions of the New Castle fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Hammil and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Baird were recent visitors in New Castle at the Cathedral.

Many Attend Concert At Emmanuel Church

The Emmanuel Baptist church was well filled Sunday evening with an appreciative audience to hear the sacred concert presented by the chorus choir under the direction of Charles Richards, church chorister with Miss Helen Jones at the organ and Miss Nana Jenkins, pianist.

An attractive program of sacred music was given consisting of solos, duets and chorus numbers.

Those taking part were R. E. Johns, Mrs. John Evans, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Parsons, Mrs. Vogan, Mrs. R. T. Morris, Mrs. John McNeill, Mrs. William Bluedorn and Mrs. Evan Lewis.

Y. M. Boys Take Hike On Saturday

Fifty Boys Enjoy Double Hike Saturday; Attend Football Game

Saturday morning at 10 o'clock fifty boys left the Y. M. C. A. on Washington street with Boy's Secretary William Thomas and hiked out to Scotland Lane where a football game was played. The two sides were chosen from boys in the group and the Rinky Dinks beat the Alley Rats by a score 21-0. The hike in its entirety covered about four miles.

At noon, the boys came back to the Y. M., enjoyed a dip in the pool and then a big bean dinner in the banquet room. Following this, as is the annual custom, the boys division hiked up to Franklin stadium and witnessed the football game together.

Organize Friendly Indian Clubs At Y. M.

Five Friendly Indian Clubs at the local Y. M. C. A. are in the process of organization and activities will be started this next Saturday, according to the announcement of William Thomas, boy's secretary.

The activities of the club includes Bible study and various activities in the four fold development of life which award points to the winners.

There are sixty boys enrolled in the Friendly Indian Clubs. Organization of the Pioneer Clubs for the coming winter will not take place until later in the month.

Council Awards Two Payments

Council today awarded payments of $1,602 for Second street paving to New Castle Construction Company and $956 to M. J. Scanlon for Haus avenue paving. The first represents a second payment and the second a first payment for Haus avenue. The action was taken when solons met in council chambers.

The Story Of Our War With Spain
American Operations In Porto Rico

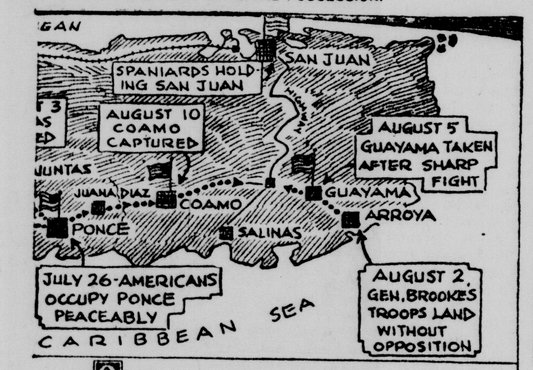

WITHIN TWO WEEKS AFTER THEIR LANDING (JULY 25, 1898) IN PORTO RICO, THE AMERICAN FORCES HAD OVER-RUN THE SOUTHERN AND WESTERN PARTS OF THAT BEAUTIFUL ISLAND, DRIVING THE SPANISH GARRISONS BEFORE THEM, AND WITH THE LOSS OF ONLY TWO MEN KILLED AND FORTY WOUNDED.

A FINE MILITARY HIGHWAY STRETCHED ACROSS THE ISLAND FROM PONCE ON THE SOUTHERN TO SAN JUAN, THE CAPITAL, ON THE NORTHERN COAST. ALONG THIS ROAD OUR SOLDIERS MARCHED, EAGER FOR BATTLE BUT ENCOUNTERING ONLY A FEEBLE RESISTANCE FROM THE SPANIARDS.

GEN. MACIAS, THE SPANISH CAPTAIN-GENERAL OF PORTO RICO, KNEW THAT HIS 15,000 SOLDIERS WERE NOT ENOUGH TO DEFEND THE ISLAND, AND, BESIDES, SPAIN WAS EAGER TO MAKE PEACE BEFORE THE AMERICANS CAPTURED MANILA, WHICH WOULD MEAN THE LOSS OF HER GREATEST COLONIAL POSSESSION.

ON AUGUST 13, 1898, THE AMERICAN SOLDIERS PRESSING ON TOWARD SAN JUAN WERE DISGUSTED TO LEARN THAT A PEACE PROTOCOL HAD BEEN SIGNED THE DAY BEFORE, AND THAT ALL MILITARY OPERATIONS WERE AT AN END.

TOMORROW—DEWEY HOLDING MANILA BAY.

New Castle High Defeats Grove City 52-6

Locals Tally Eight Touchdowns Against Visitors Saturday

New Castle High Football Team Swamps Grove City; "Tommy" Harper Features With Five Touchdowns; McAuley And Sillman Turn In Fine Plays; Mercer Countians Hold Locals Even For First Quarter; Coach Hartman Presents Fighting Eleven; Subs Get Chance To Show Wares; Crowd Of 5,000 Witnesses Game

By "BUGS" WALTHER

A fighting New Castle High school football team conquered Grove City High at Ben Franklin stadium field on Saturday afternoon. The score was 52 to 6. The invaders threw only a momentary scare into the red and black stronghold. A crowd estimated at 5,000 witnessed the game.

New Castle High got away to a bad start, but the team pulled themselves together and rode to a lopsided victory over the Mercer countians. The locals displayed great potentialities in their eight-touchdown victory. Coach Philip H. Bridenbaugh uncovered an offensive drive that swept the visitors off their feet. This is attested to by the fact that New Castle at the conclusion of the game stood accredited with 26 first downs. Grove City had one first down.

Grove City's touchdown came in the first three minutes of play. New Castle was headed for the goal line and was on the 40-yard line when Briggs, the visitors' right end, snatched up a fumbled ball and outraced the New Castle team in a 60-yard sprint that carried him over the goal line.

Harper Individual Star

"Tommy" Harper the New Castle battering ram, was the individual star of the game. Five times the fullback hurled his 185-pounds at the center of the Grove City line, and went over for touchdowns. In addition to a line plunger every football machine must have a deceptive ball-carrier whose job it is to skirt the ends and execute various tricks of grid problems, and New Castle High school presented just such a youngster in the game Saturday, his name is Ralph "Red" McAuley, who recently came here from Cleveland, Ohio.

McAuley replaced "Toby" Fernati at left-half Saturday and Coach Bridenbaugh's judgment was vindicated soon after the game started. McAuley was one of the main cogs in the offensive drive that netted New Castle first-downs almost at will. Late in the second quarter McAuley tallied a touchdown after spearing a pass from Sillman. The red-thatched youngster is a Sophomore at Senior High. Fernati is out of the game with an injured optic and will likely return for the Schenley game.

New Castle's powerful forward wall charged with a fury Saturday that bodes ill for the remaining teams on the 1928 schedule, time and time again the linemen broke through and smeared Grove City plays before they could get under way. The line deserves a big share of the victory. The red and black team presented a smooth running attack with Sillman, McAuley and Harper bearing the burden of yardage. Di Carbo and Shaffer used as defensive backfield men played strong games.

Visitors Score Early

The game started with Grove City electing to receive at the northern goal. Sillman kicked off for New Castle and W. Dunn received it for Grove City and made a 12-yard return. Grove City fumbled but New Castle was off-side and Grove City was given the ball. J. Dunn kicked to Sillman who made a short gain. Sillman, Harper and DiCarbo alternated in carrying the ball and made a first down. A concentrated drive good for another first-down, looked like a touchdown for New Castle with the ball on the 40-yard line.

A New Castle backfield man fumbled the ball and Briggs the Grove City right-end was on the alert, snatching up the ball he hustled away for the goal-line with the entire New Castle team chasing him, but he eluded the feild and negotiated the 60-yards that netted a touchdown. J. Dunn failed to kick the extra-point. Grove City 6. New Castle 0.

New Castle soon evened up the count, J. Dunn kicked off to Sillman who returned the ball 10 yards. McAuley and Harper picked up ten yards for a first-down. Several nice gains by Sillman, Harper and McAuley placed the ball on the 3-yard line and Harper crashed through center for the touchdown. Sillman failed to kick the extra-point. New Castle 6. Grove City 6.

Grove City received and the visitors were headed for the goal-line near the end of the first period. At the close of the session Grove City had worked the ball to the 12-yard line. New Castle 6. Grove City 6.

Defense Tightens

The Mercer Countians had visions of again denting the New Castle goal line as the second quarter got started, but New Castle's line stiffened and the Grove City backfield found the job of gaining very difficult. Grove City lost the ball on downs on the 10-yard line. New Castle began a drive down the field that netted them numerous first-downs. McAuley hurled a pass to Sillman that gained 25 yards and placed the ball, on the 35-yard line. A few more thrusts at the Grove City line and New Castle had the ball on the 20-yard line. McAuley picked up 4-yards and Harper went to the 7 yard line for a first-down. Sillman shot through tackle for a short gain and New Castle had the ball on the 4-yard line. Harper crashed through for his second touchdown.

Sillman's try for placemer was blocked but McAuley picked up the ball and scampered over the line for an extra-point. New Castle 13. Grove City 6.

New Castle kicked off to Grove City and the visitors surrendered the ball when they found the going tough. Sillman took a punt from J. Dunn and made 22-yards. Sillman hurled a pass to McAuley good for an advance of 18-yards and gave New Castle the ball on the 35-yard line. Another pass Sillman to Ostrosky gave New Castle the ball on the 20-yard line. Sillman again passed to McAuley and it was good for a touchdown. Sillman kicked a placement for another point. New Castle 20. Grove City 6. The first half ended with Grove City in possession of the ball on the 22-yard line.

DiCarbo Scores

Sillman kicked off to Beatty to start the third quarter and Grove City soon surrendered the ball, being unable to gain steadily. J. Dunn punted to Sillman, who carried the ball 5 yards before being tackled by Murphy. McAuley picked up 9 yards and Sillman made it first down. Harper ripped through a broken field and was not downed until he reached the five-yard mark. DiCarbo was given the ball and took it to the two-inch line, and on the next play DiCarbo took it over. Sillman's try for extra point was good. New Castle 27, Grove City 6.

New Castle secured possession of the ball when Grove City could not make their downs, and the red and black warriors started another march to the goal line, with McAuley and Harper the big guns. Harper dashed 22 yards for his third touchdown. A placement by Sillman was blocked. New Castle 33, Grove City 6.

Near the end of the third quarter Harper tallied his fourth touchdown. New Castle had possession of the ball through a punt from J. Dunn when Grove City was held for downs. A drive down the field with the "Three Musketeers", Silman, Harper and McAuley carrying the ball, placed the pigskin on the one-yard line and Harper was again called on for a plunge across the line. Silman's try for the extra point was good. New Castle 40, Grove City 6 at the end of the third period.

J. Dunn kicked to Sillman at the start of the fourth quarter and the blonde quarterback returned the ball 15 yards. McAuley dashed through a broken field for a gain of 25 yards and placed the ball on the 10-yard line. New Castle drew a 5-yard penalty. Shaffer replaced DiCarbo for New Castle. Harper took a lateral pass from Sillman and made his way over the goal line for his fifth touchdown. McAuley tried to drop-kick one for another point, but it was blocked. New Castle 46, Grove City 6.

Smith Makes Touchdown

Sillman kicked off to Kennmuir and the Grove City halfback was stopped in his tracks. Several line bucks by Grove City failed and J. Dunn kicked to Sillman. Sillman ran the ball out of bounds on the 50-yard line. Shaffer picked up 3 yards. McAuley made it first down for New Castle on the 40-yard line. Smith replaced Sillman at quarterback. McAuley ripped off another dash for first down. Smith made another first down on the 30-yard line. Harper and McAuley picked up five yards between them. Grove City was penalized for holding and drew a 15-yard penalty that gave New Castle the ball on the 1-yard line. Smith carried it over on the next play. McAuley failed in an effort to annex the extra point. New Castle 52, Grove City 6.

Coach Bridenbaugh had almost an entire substitute team on the field for the biggest part of the fourth quarter and the reserves performed very well. Coach Hartman sent in a good many substitutes to stem the tide, but New Castle could not be stopped.

Wilmington High Wins From Trade School 19-0

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Oct. 1.—On Saturday afternoon, the New Wilmington high school football team opened the 1928 grid season by defeating the New Castle Trade school eleven by a score of 19-0 on the New Wilmington field.

The New Wilmington team scored their first touchdown in the second quarter. Patterson the stellar halfback, intercepted a forward pass in the first quarter on the Trade school's 20 yard line. After Davis and Patterson failed to gain, a grounded pass gave the ball to the visitors. MaJocha and Proctor failed to advance the ball and Proctor was forced to kick the pigskin on his own 40 yard line. Eagleson at this point of the game made the longest run of the game when he caught the punt and raced 38 yards down the field to place the ball on the one yard line as the first quarter ended.

On the first play as the second quarter got under way Davis plunged the ball over the line for the first touchdown of the game and incidentally the first for the 1928 season. Patterson failed to kick the ball over for the extra point. Score New Wilmington 6 Trade school 0.

New Wilmington scored the second touchdown of the game in the third quarter. Richards made a short kick off and the ball was put in play in midfield by the local high school eleven. On the third play, Davis made first down on a play around left end. New Wilmington was penalized and Davis made first down by plunging through center. After Neal and Eagleson gained 5 yards, Davis on an off tackle play made first down. A pass Patterson to Davis placed the oval on the Trade school's 10 yard line. Davis again on an off tackle play scored the second touchdown of the game for the college town gridders. Patterson carried the ball over the line for the extra marker. Score New Wilmington 13, Trade school 0.

The final touchdown of the game was scored in the last quarter of play on a 12 yard run by Davis, a pass Patterson to Neal netted 15 yards. After Eagleson gained a few yards on a line buck, Davis ran 18 yards for the last touchdown of the game. Neal failed to get through the line for the extra point. Score—New Wilmington 19, Trade school 0.

Davis with his hard line plunges, brilliant runs and uncanny ability to snatch passes starred for the local eleven. Eagleson's run of 38 yards that placed the ball on the one yard line proved the best ground gainer of the tilt. New Wilmington's passing and plunging bewildered the New Castle gridders and the latter could not get their offensive started. Flynn and Richards starred for the Trade school eleven. Richards made the longest run for the visitors in the second quarter of play but they lost the oval when they failed to make first down. The college gridders scored 11 first downs to three made by the trade school team.

The lineup:

New Wilmington 19		N. C. T. S. 0
N. Greer	L.E.	Dudek
McConnall	L.T.	Boyd
Klump	L.G.	Tyrell
Rose	C	Tyrell
McCrumb	R.G.	DeMuccio
Lee	R.T.	Flynn
Smith	R.E.	Clemens
Neal	Q	Cober
Eagleson	R.H.	Richards
Patterson	L.H.	Majocha
Davis	F	Proctor

Substitutions: New Wilmington: L. Davis for Klump; Klump for L. Davis; L. Davis for McCrumb; Eggett for N. Greer; P. Greer for Lee.

New Castle Trade school: Henzle for Cook; Klodyski for Boyd; Boyd for Klodyski; Richards for Proctor; Cicconi for Richards; Van Horn for Dudek; Leonelli for Tyrell.

Officials: Referee, Hoskins, New Castle; Philips, New Wilmington.

New Castle Boys Aid In Victories

Several New Castle young men, former well known New Castle high football stars, aided their respective colleges in grid games played on Saturday.

Charles "Tippy" Richards, captain of the 1927 New Castle team, and now a halfback at Geneva, tallied a couple of touchdowns in the 75 to 0 defeat that the Covenanters hung on Adrian.

Paul Reider, sensational young quarterback at senior high last year, scored two touchdowns for Bellefonte Academy in their 99 to 0 defeat of Palmer A. C. Reider was used at a halfback post.

Earl Turk, "Bob" Millison, Fahey and Walt Sumner, former New Castle high grid luminaries were used by Coach Elmer Layden in the Duquesne lineup Saturday against Slippery Rock.

Few Upsets In Saturday College Football Contests

Football results in Western Pennsylvania at least, ran true to form on Opening Day, Saturday, September 29. The teams that were supposed to win, did win, with most the losing teams putting up the usual "dogged fight" and just as usual, coming out on the extreme tip of the small end of the horn.

Pitt defeated Thiel 20-0, Carnegie Tech defeated Westminster 32-6, Duquesne defeated Slippery Rock 9-0, Wash-Jeff defeated Bethany 24-0 and Geneva ran rough shod over Adrian, 75-0, and Allegheny defeated Mt. Union 32-0. Grove City did not play and this accounts for the college teams in this section of the state.

Among the eastern teams Penn State defeated Lebanon Valley 25-0, Columbia defeated Vermont 20-0 Penn defeated Ursinus 34-0, Georgetown defeated Mt. St. Mary's 31-0, Colgate took St. Lawrence 33-6, Army defeated Boston U 35-0.

Flashing a second surprise Davis-Elkins, conquerors of West Virginia a week ago, scored a touchback upon the Navy and won 2-0. Rockne's Horsemen of Notre Dame had plenty of trouble defeating Loyola 12-6. The little University of South Carolina took all the fun out of the season for the University of Chicago by defeating Stagg's warriors 6-0. These were the surprise games of the day.

For a lock at some high scores consider John Carrol, of Cleveland which piled up 131 points against Michigan State Normal's eleven. Or Michigan State College which defeated Kalamazoo 103-0.

Barring the upsets noted, the season got under way as per usual. The fight for national honors now starts with Navy, Chicago and West Virginia already out and with Notre Dame apparently in for a hard time of it, if the first game with Loyola is to be taken as an indication.

While the major leagues plugged toward two of the hottest finishes passed out to the fans in many a moon, the leading minor leagues also renewed interest in their circuits by some thrilling home-stretch races.

And in the Western league Tulsa and Wichita staged a knock-down, drag-out battle for the flag that had the fans gasping.

Other leagues here and there have had equally as thrilling finishes.

It is also interesting to note that former major leaguers, who once played parts in major league pennant scraps, have had their finger in the pie in these minor league scrambels.

Milwaukee sounded the death knell to the hopes of Minneapolis in the A. A. flag race by trouncing the Millers, and the hurler who turned back the Minneapolis team for Milwaukee was Ernie Wingard, late of the Browns and once destined, it seemed, to lift the Browns out of the rut and make trouble for the other American league clubs.

Eddie Sicking, once a member of the Cincy Reds and the cause of a near war while in the majors, starred the same day by pinch hitting the Louisville club of that league to victory in its effort to climb out of last place.

Doctors Say Villa Nova Quarterback Has Neck Broken In Two Places

(International News Service)

PHILALELPHIA, Oct. 1.—Hope has virtually been given up for the recovery of Leo Goodreau, 19, of Haverhill, Mass., Villa Nova college quarterback, who broke his neck in scrimmage last Friday.

Goodreau is unaware his spine is fractured in two places and believed today he merely had a broken collarbone. Physicians at the Bryn Mawr hospital say the boy may live a day or a week.

Goodreau's condition was reported as "very poor" early today.

Football Player Wears Spectacles

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—The University of Chicago football eleven, coached by that vet of veterans, Alonzo Stagg, boasts the only player in the country who wears glasses. He is Ben Wattenberg, the fancy passer of the squad.

Wattenberg wears a special headgear which fits over his eyes and in which a pair of glasse has been built. The lenses are ground out of celloid to minimize the danger of injury. Wattenberg is known now to his classmates as the "Mask Marvel". The glasses make a huge difference in the accuracy of his passing. Wattenberg is expected to be a regular with the Maroons.

Westminster Battles Carnegie Tech Team Gamely; Loses 32 To 6

Westminster, Greatly Outweighed, Surprises Tech Eleven At Youngstown

By R. X. GRAHAM
(Special To The News)

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Sept. 29.—Saturday afternoon at the Rayen high school field here a fighting little Westminster eleven battled valiantly with a huge Carnegie Tech grid machine and succeeded in garnering 6 points against the heavier, bulkier and highly touted Tech eleven. The light United Presbyterians were beaten physically by the heavier Pittsburghers but there was never an instant when the spark of hope waned in the small but fighting Beede coached Westminsterites. Tech piled up 32 points.

What was lacking in brawn on the Blue and White team was made up in fighting spirit, so that the Beede-coached outfit played valiantly to succeed in doing what few teams will do this year, score on Tech. Although outweighed some 30 pounds per man, Westminster never let up, and the praises of the 6,000 fans together with those precious six points may nerve Beede's crew for remaining games on the schedule.

The starting lineup for Westminster had seven plucky youngsters on the line who averaged 175 pounds with four backs averaging 165 pounds. Opposed to this array were the Tech stalwarts with a line averaging 202 and a set of backs that would ruin scales which could not hold more than 190 pounds.

Tech Starts Early

Judge "Wally" Steffen's behemoths started their 1928 activities early in the first quarter. Westminster won the toss and elected to defend. Holzapfel, the Westminster quarter, kicked off to Eyth on the 10-yard mark. The Tech flash returned it to the 43-yard line before he was brought to earth. Then Karcis, built like an army tank but having the speed of a De Palma special, bored big holes through the line to impress upon the light Titan crew the fact that he weighs 225 pounds with his uniform dry.

Despite a number of penalties for offside and slugging, Tech advanced the ball through a stubborn lineup of Westminster men from the 43-yard line to the Titan goal. This sustained march was made with Moorehead (in place of Eyth,) Karcis and Letzelter carrying the ball. Letzelter missed the try for extra point, and the quarter ended with Tech leading by 6 to 0.

Second Quarter

Tech added three more touchdowns in the second quarter, the direct result of an intercepted pass by Dreshar, Tech center; the line-plunging of Karcis, Tartan fullback; and a forward pass, Harpster to Moorehead.

Of the tries for extra points, Harpster was successful in only one. Harpster tried to run the ball over for the first, but was stopped by the Westminster forward wall. A kick from placement for the second hit Boone, Westminster center. After the third touchdown, Harpster succeeded in booting the ball between the bars for the extra point.

Following this scoring spree, Rosesweig, Tech right end, fumbled near midfield and the alert Forsha, Westminster left end, covered the ball. Forsha made three yards on an end-around as the half ended, Tech leading by a 25-0 score.

U. P. Defense Tightens

The third quarter found the Westminster lads still fighting valiantly. Following a march of nine yards by Tech, the Blue and White line held for downs and took possession of the ball. Havrilla, Westminster fullback, made considerable headway on line plunges in this quarter, but the Titans did not get near enough to the Tartan goal line to threaten. The third quarter ended without further score.

Early in the fourth period, Tech pushed the ball to the Blue and White goal line where Moorhead carried it over for the fifth touchdown on a dash around right end. Letzelter made good the try for extra points, bringing the Tartan total up to 32 points.

Westminster Flashes Surprise

But the Westminster players were not discouraged by the score. Beede sent in a number of replacements who gave new life to the outfit. Dible made 15 yards on a reverse play and added a few more yards on end runs soon after Tech's last score. Here the ball was lost on downs and the Tartans had covetous eyes on the goal line for another marker.

Boone, scrappy little center on the Westminster team, soon spoiled any such plans of Tech by recovering Letzelter's fumble on the 20-yard line. At this point, Palmer, 155 pound half, went in for Bible and Michaels, freshman full, replaced Havrilla.

Tech took possession of the ball on downs and was about to open up another attack when the stripling Palmer intercepted a pass and raced 27 yards through the Tech players to the 3-yard mark. Palmer added two more yards and on the third play lost two when Schnupp broke through and picked up the lightweight like a sack of salt.

Here Holzapfel outwitted the Tartans. He succeeded in drawing the entire Tech outfit to the center of the line to stop a line buck and then tossed a forward to Pipoly. Westminster right end, for a touchdown. Holzapfel's attempt at an extra point was blocked by Dreshar and Schnupp.

This bit of activity threw the Westminster stands into hysterics and the whole day was made perfect for players and rooters alike. The fondest dreams of the Blue and White were realized. Tech's goal line had been crossed, and Westminster carried six points off the field together with any number of black eyes, sore arms, bruised legs, and other minor hurts.

The whole Tech team played as stars in the first magnitude with enough satellites to take their place to make a football heaven. Mention need not be made of them, but for Westminster the whole starting lineup as well as the substitutes brought joy to the hearts of Westminster fans. Seven freshmen on the Blue and White squad saw action and all acquitted themselves like veterans. These men were Pipoly, Forsha, Fuller, Dishong, Palmer, Michaels and Cebula.

Johnnie Hall, fleet half, suffered bruised ribs in the tilt which may keep him out of action for three or four weeks. At first it was thought that he had sustained fractured ribs. Cebula had a bad ankle sprain which will keep him on the sidelines for a time. Aside from this, nothing more than minor injuries were carried away.

The lineups:

Tech—		—Westminster
L. Flannagan	L. E.	Forsha
Schmidt	L. T.	Dombrowski
Lovewell	L. G.	Ayers
Dreshar	C.	Boone

Fedore To Box Charleroi Boy

Alex Simms And Walter Dickerson Clash In 10-Round Semi-Final

THREE OTHER BOUTS ON FISTIC CALENDAR

By ED. FRITZ

FIGHTERS may come and fighters may go, but the knockout thrills fandom. This is a truism of the ring and anyone who has the same attitude as Sir Doubting Thomas can ascertain the actuality of the statement by placing his finger on the record of one Jack Dempsey, then gazing into the attendance records.

Jack packed 'em in everywhere he fought because he had the "sock", and it looks as though the welterweight show carded for tonight at Jolly Bowl will bring forth a couple of thonsaud fans, as punchers, rather than scienced boxers, are carded for action.

Fedore Battles Saylor

Mickey Fedore, Canton, and Young Saylor, Charleroi, will clash in the main battle of 10 rounds' duration, while Walter Dickerson, California, and Alex Simms, Canton, will answer the bell in the semi-final which is also carded for 10 rounds. Saylor has lost three decisions in five years, while Fedore has never been knocked out, which is something unique when one considers he has participated in 110 fights. Dickerson has been one of western Pennsylvania's outstanding semi-finalists, while Simms has fought many of the gladiators in Fedore's class.

Expect Lots of Action

Since the birth of the Jolly Bowl the order of bouts has been a 10, two six and two four-round battles, which was a follow-up to the knock-down-drag-'em-out affairs at the Old Armory. There has been a wonderful lot of action in all except two of the shows, and it is said by Jolly that tonight's welterweight show will certainly bring forth a lot of punching and perhaps a couple of knockouts. Fedore, Saylor, Dickerson and Simms can hit, according to Jolly, and if they unfurl their blows and keep moving there should be plenty of action.

Mattee Vs. Thomas

While the aforementioned quartet is supposed to furnish the most spectacular action, there are a couple of other battles on the card which may match up to the 10-round battlers. Joe Todd of Charleroi and Todd Smith, Canton, will battle in a six-round bout and Joe Corsey, Canton, will take on Joe Kenendy, Pittsburgh, in a four-round bout. Lawrence Mattee and Johnny Thomas, lightweights, and newcomers to the boxing game, will open the show in a bout limited to four rounds. The boys have been training strenuously and their supporters will be seated around the wooden saucer to cheer the local boys on. No doubt they will toss a lot of punches.

The boxing show will start at 8:15 p. m.

SORDS POINTS

Four Pennant Race Stars Southpaws

By JACK SORDS
Sports Cartoonist-Writer for Central Press and New Castle News

Southpaws! What a glorious frolic they have had during this last season. Herb Pennock of the Yankees, Lefty Grove of the Athletics, Hubbell of the Giants and Sherdel of the Cardinals, the four aces of the four teams that fought for the big league pennants to the last are all lefties.

Grove is the strikeout king of his league. Pennock owns the best overhand curve ball in the majors. Hubbell looks like the best southpaw bet the National has seen in years. Sherdel's ability is well known.

Pennock had the toughest luck this year. He was going great guns when neuritis set in and has since been of little use to his club. It's too bad, because Herbie is now at the peak of his career and may never again enjoy so great a season.

Woman Is Killed And Son Injured; Train Hits Auto

WAYNESBORO, Pa., Oct. 1.—Mrs. I. W. Clark of Munhall, Pa., was instantly killed, and her husband and son were injured when a Western Maryland freight train struck their motor car as it was crossing the tracks at Waynecastle, two miles west of here. Mrs. Clark suffered a fractured skull.

Her husband landed on the cowcatcher of the train and was carried almost a quarter of a mile down the track before the locomotive was stopped. He suffered a broken leg and other injuries. The five-year-old son was less seriously hurt.

BOY SCOUT Activities

ROTARY TROOP NO. 1

Rotary troop No. 1 will meet at Ben Franklin school Thursday night of this week. This will be the first meeting this fall and it is imperative that the attendance be 100 per cent. A large number of boys from Rotary troop No. 1 spent two or more weeks at Camp Phillips, the Lawrence county Boy Scout camp, and rolled up a score of enviable records. Badges won at the camp will be presented at the fall court of honor which will be held in the near future. Remember, Thursday night, October 4, at 7:30.

Cardinals Look Like Best Defensive Team

Davis J. Walsh Figures St. Louis Has Chance To Upset Yanks This Year

Yank Pitching Staff Not In Best Of Shape For World Series

(EDITOR'S NOTE:—This is the first of a series of articles by Davis J. Walsh, comparing the respective merits of the New York Yankees and St. Louis Cardinals who will meet in the 1928 world series, starting on Thursday).

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—De-bunking neatly and quickly done while you wait, will be the slogan today, as the writer sets out to attempt a comparison of the two world series entries, the Yankees and Cardinals, with as little of the customary bunk as the rather stringent by-laws of the serious thinkers' association will permit.

There will be no man to man comparisons, for when these aren't actually futile, they are at least funny. What difference is there that one man may happen to be better than his rival in the position they fill? Baseball isn't decided on that basis. It is a team game, if ever there was one.

Attack and Defense.

There will be no especial departmental comparisons, either, although these may have their place. They get one way from essential fundamentalism, however. What is baseball? Yes, yes, doubleday. A game. I was afraid I wouldn't catch you on that one.

Baseball, like any other contest known to man, is made up of two Cardinal departments of play. They are attack and defense and, de-bunking the non-essentials as we go, we will proceed along these lines forthwith.

Pitching is defense, for the most part; so the Cards are away to a running start, with Pennock not likely to appear in any of the games and the Yankee staff consisting largely of Waite Hoyt and—er—yes, Waite Hoyt. The Cardinals can match him with any one of several men, Alexander, Sherdel and Haines, and have at least two pitchers, equally good, to counter with the following day. A local "handicapper" has said that it isn't in the book for Alexander to repeat his successes of the 1926 series against the Yanks. Perhaps not. But neither is it likely that the Yanks will repeat what they did to Sherdel, who didn't win a game, yet should have won two. Sherdel looks ready for the iron-man act in this issue, possibly pitching as many as three games. He ought to win two of them.

Alexander Still Good.

Alex still is one of the greatest single-game pitchers of the pastime and could come back for another, if necessary. Perhaps it won't be. McKechnie should call at least three well pitched ball games out of Sherdel and Haines and this is regarding the matter from a most conservative viewpoint. Then there is Clarence Mitchell. I am aware that Clarence finished the season mostly on his hands and knees but that was against teams that knew all about him. The Yanks never have seen that left handed spitball and a new delivery always is good against a club of sluggers. Besides, if anything tends to cramp the Yankees' style, it is a left hander. Clarence will find a spot somewhere in this series.

If Pennock was ready to work two of the games, Yankee pitching would appear in a light slightly more favorable. But the old champions gradually are falling apart and this happens to be one of the loose dingbats. Zachary is the only other first class pitcher left and Thomas isn't quite as young as he was three years ago, when he was much too old for the boyish bob. He still is quite a threat for one game but that should let him quite out.

Pitchers Not In Shape.

Heimach hasn't been much of a bet any time the Yanks needed a ball game these several months but he will have to go in there just the same. Pipgras, after a great rush in the early months of the campaign, couldn't get them out the rest of the way, barring one really fine performance against the Athletics. However, anything a Yankee does against the Athletics or vice versa is out, automatically. Henry Johnson may fastball the situation from time to time but largely in emergencies, which figure to be somewhat frequent.

Since pitching is sixty per cent of the defense, it might seem that it isn't necessary to pursue our inquiry further. As a matter of fact, the defense behind the pitcher is the thing that makes the good ones look better and the bad ones worse than they could possibly be. The Cardinals' defense-behind-the-pitcher takes the cabinet pudding, too. The catcher, they say, makes or breaks his pitcher. Jimmy Wilson, of the Cardinals, who barring injury will work all of the games, is one of the ranking catchers of baseball. And just what have the Yankees, by way of rejoinder? Benough, mostly ordinary, sometimes actually mediocre, never brilliant. One can't compare him with Wilson, except to his disadvantage. The Yanks have two more in Collins and Grabowski, but they are notorious for their eccentricities behind the plate. Earl Smith, who probably won't catch a game of the series, is a better man than either of them. I have considered those mentioned solely as workmen, as defensive catchers, not hitters.

Cards Best Infield.

The two infields are taken up in the same spirit. Again the Cards score. Bottomley, Frisch, Maranville and High or Holm possibly wouldn't cut-rank Gehrig, Lazzeri, Koenig and Dugan or Robertson, if all well. But Lazzeri, with almost a useless arm, is getting by on raw courage alone and he is the man who is supposed to pivot them into double plays. Dugan has gone bad, too, and Robertson, his understudy, is neither better nor worse than Robertson. At the same time, I will take Thevenow in preference to Durocher or Gazella, the Yanks' utility men.

The inevitable distinegration, therefore, has cut into Yankee efficiency in another vital sector.

Combs Injured.

It isn't through yet. A few days ago, Combs crashed into the wall in Detroit, broke his wrist and is out of the series. If he was playing centerfield, there would be no question as to which had the better outfield defense. As it is I think I will give it to the Yankees, anyhow, although much of this notion depends upon Ruth rounding into shape in the next few days. If he still is hobbling about as he was a week ago, there is nothing for it, of course, but to concede the issue to three sound outfielders, however indifferent their play may be at times.

Hafey possibly is a stand-off with Eusel in left field, each having his weak moments. Douthit in centre is a better fly-chaser than either Durst or Paschal, substitutes for Combs but a sound Ruth will go and get a lot of balls that will get away from Harper or Blades.

However, the entire scheme of defense leaves the Cardinals with quite the better of the debate.

Ben Franklin Team Will Start Season

Tonight at the Franklin field the Ben Franklin football team will inaugurate the grid season by clashing with the Sophomores from the senior league. The game starts at 4:15 o'clock.

The game should be fast as both teams appear light and evenly matched. The Franklin team this year is light but fast and well balanced. The game will not count as a league tilt as both teams are members of different leagues.

Civilization's end is assured. Time-saving machinery will leave us nothing at all to do, and then everybody will be bored to death.

Tuff Job For Tuss By Feg Murray

From the winning sensation of the East in 1926 to the doormat of nearly every college, big and little, that it played in 1927—that was the metamorphosis that the Brown University football team underwent in the short space of fifteen months. When Coach D. O. McLaughry's boys began slapping over all opposition two seasons ago, and defeated Yale and Dartmouth on successive Saturdays without using a substitute, folks began to sit up and take notice, and the name of "Iron Men" was tagged on to the small but sturdy warriors of the little school at Providence, Rhode Island.

Led by Captain Hal Broda, one of the best ends in the country, and with a backfield composed of Red Randall, Ed Lawrence, Dave Mishel, and Al Cornsweet, the "Iron Men" went through the season without a defeat, played a tie game with Colgate, and won much fame for their school and themselves and more "iron men," so it is said, for their coach.

Now "Tuss" McLaughry, a former Westminster man, is no dumbbell, and when the boys gathered for the 1927 season they were advised by their coach to "Forget last year's record." Evidently that was pretty hard to do, and slight evidence of swell-headedness was apparent. But nobody worried much—"The Iron Men would come through!"—and so the 1927 season got under way. Rhode Island State and Albright were beaten easily, and then came the holocaust! Brown lost to Penn and was swamped by Yale, 19 to 0!

"Ah well, two set-ups in a row for a breather, then we'll tackle Dartmouth and Harvard," mused the Iron Men. The "set-ups," Lebanon Valley and Temple, beat Brown 13 to 12 and 7 to 0, respectively. Then came the Dartmouth and Harvard set-backs and a victory over little New Hampshire, and one last supreme effort against Colgate. But for the third year in succession Brown and Colgate tied, so the season was an utter failure.

Can the "Iron Men" forget last year's record?"

It may not be significant, but the plan is to rearrange wave lengths and clean the air of junk immediately after the campaign closes.

Two Tennis Tourney Matches Saturday

Myrtle Burnett And Martha Smith Are Winners Of Matches

Two tennis matches in the Y. W. tennis tourney were played off Saturday at the Gilfillan court.

Contestants in the first match played off at one o'clock were Miss Myrtle Burnett and Miss Floy Owens. The first set was onesided, but in the second set Miss Owens picked up considerably and the longest set of any match in any Y. W. tournament was played. A total of 26 games were played. Score: first set, 6-4; second set, 14-12, both for Burnett.

The second match, played between Miss Martha Smith and Miss Leona Sankey, was quite onesided. Miss Sankey put up better defense than in the first match she played. Score 6-1 in the first set and also 6-1 in the second set, Miss Smith winning both sets.

This evening at five o'clock Miss Dee Rech and Mrs. Ruth Brown Fenton will play off.

Tuesday at five o'clock there will be a match between Miss Martha Smith and Miss Jennie Johnson.

Wednesday at five o'clock Miss Lillian Ekblom and Mrs. Eileen Stone will play off.

Thursday evening the winner of Wednesday's match will play Miss Myrtle Burnett.

It is hoped to play the semi-finals on Friday and the finals in the tournament on Saturday.

Tunney May Marry On Polly's Ship

Ceremony May Be Performed Away From All Reporters And Publicity

(International News Service)

NAPLES, Oct. 1.—Wedding rumors centering about Gene Tunney, former heavyweight champion, were reinforced by another this afternoon when it was reported that he might be married on board the Italian liner Saturnia to Miss Josephine (Polly) Lauder. Miss Lauder, her mother and a party of friends are due to arrive here tomorrow on the Italian ship.

According to the latest rumor the ceremony might be performed on the ship with special precautions to keep reporters away. It is the ardent wish of the former pugilist that newspaper men be absent from his nuptials.

Mt. Washington - Steepest accessible mountain conquered by FRANKLIN in new record time

IN another world's record Franklin again has demonstrated the great power, hill-climbing tenacity and unfailing efficiency of the air-cooled motor. In an amazing run up the side of Mt. Washington, New Hampshire, Cannon Ball Baker, driving a Franklin Special, streaked his way from the Toll House to the summit in 14 minutes, 49⅕ seconds—breaking the previous record by 2 minutes, 10⅗ seconds.

In this 8 miles of choppy stone and gravel the road rises 4673 feet with grades as steep as 26%. The record is doubly remarkable as the last 2½ miles were driven through dense clouds and fog that hampered driving and obscured vision considerably. Added to Franklin's three other recent triumphs, the Mt. Washington climb definitely establishes the sustained high speed and easy, sure control of the Airman Limited and proves it the world's fastest road car.

A Franklin Special, competing against six other high powered cars, flashed up Pike's Peak, in 19 minutes, 25⅕ seconds—an astonishing demonstration of air-cooling efficiency.

Climbing Lookout Mountain, 46% steeper than Pike's Peak, a stock Airman Limited broke the previous record and again proved Franklin's power and air-cooling efficiency.

The amazing performance which is enabling Franklin to break so many road records, is the same that thousands of Franklin Owners are enjoying. The comfort and luxury of the Airman Limited are as refreshing and delightful as the performance is thrilling. Drive the car—you will then know Luxurious Fast Travel.

N. Y. STOCKS

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Strong "demonstrations" in the motor stocks and high-priced specialties at the beginning of trading today followed close upon the issuance of the September and four-quarter reports of production and sales of a number of the well-known companies, including Studebaker and Graham-Paige.

Evidences of booming business in representative industries, as presented today in a symposium of bankers' statements issued at the national convention at Philadelphia, helped to crystalize bullish sentiment in the speculative district.

The call loan rate was 7 per cent., with funds in good supply and a good prospect of a slight decline later in the day; time money was firm at 7¼ per cent.

Chrysler Motor carried its spectacular advance to above 122 for a new gain of 3 points; General Motors sold above 218 and Studebaker around 82. Yellow Truck was in demand at 39¾. U. S. Steel duplicated its former high prices of 161½ in active trading in the first hour trading slowed up in the second period and profit-taking in the sky flyers forced a gradual reaction in prices of the leading shares. The rails were inactive but good buying appeared in a number of the independent oils, with Sinclair leading a moderate advance.

Hold "Lover" In Connection With Suicide's Death

Mrs. Cora Meade Could Not Have Shot Herself, Police Disclose

WILL INVESTIGATE CANADIAN MOUNTIE

Think Revolver Was Cause Of Death; Then Obliterated By Rifle

(International News Service)

SANTA CRUZ, Cal., Oct. 1.—Startling developments in the mystery death of Mrs. Cora Meade, estranged wife of a millionaire Chicago cycle manufacturer, were made known today when investigators declared it would have been a physical impossibility for the woman to have fired the shot that caused her death.

It was also disclosed that the fatal bullet did not enter the woman's body by way of her mouth, as police had believed at first but that shot came from behind.

L. A. Thornewill, former member of the Royal Canadian police, and asserted lover of Mrs. Meade, was held pending further investigation by criminologists. Thornewill, who according to his own story lived with Mrs. Meade for six years on her prize chicken ranch here, was at first cleared of any suspicion by police. With later findings by investigators his arrest was ordered and effected.

Adding to the mystery is the announcement that authorities upon closest examination cannot find a single fingerprint on the Springfield rifle which lay near the woman's body when she was found. A revolver, one chamber empty and showing evidence of having been fired recently, was found wrapped in a blood stained cloth in Mrs. Meade's dresser drawer. This weapon was also printless.

Ten hairs, said to be different from those of Mrs. Meade, were found clutched in the woman's hand. Her arms were marked with bruises indicating a struggle with some unknown person according to the coroner.

The possibility was voiced that the death shot had been fired from the revolver and the rifle used later to obliterate the revolver mark and make the act appear a suicide.

Mayor Walker Is Admitted To Bar Of Supreme Court

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—Mayor James J. Walker of New York was admitted to practice before the Supreme court today.

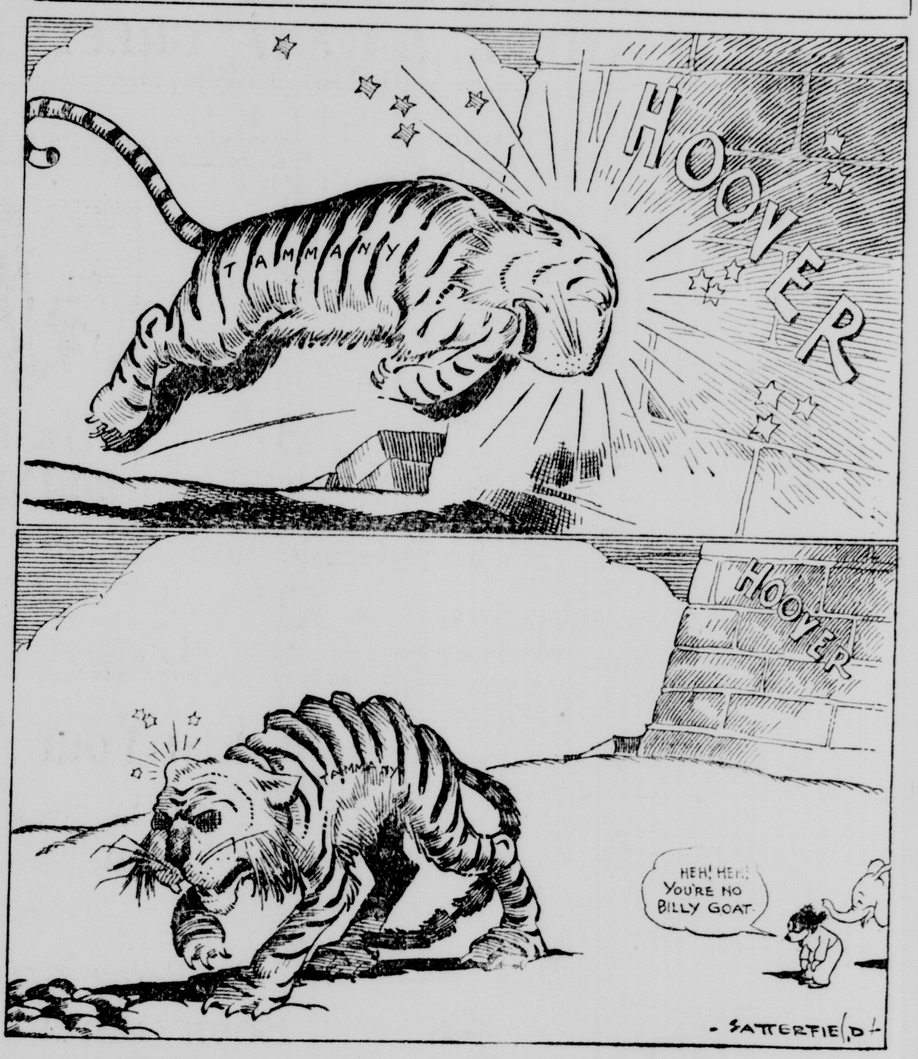

Motion for his admission was made by Charles L. Craig, city comptroller, who came here with Walker in connection with the New York seven-cent fare case.

The delay was requested because of the illness of Samuel Untermyer, special counsel for the New York Transit Commission. The motion was presented by Irvin Untermyer.

History has made heroes of lots of men who were really too scared to run.

Schlee And Brock Are Still Aloft; Seeking Record

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

ROCKWELL FIELD, SAN DIEGO Cal., Oct. 1.—William Brock and Edward Schlee, noted globe-girdling airmen, were still aloft today in their heavily loaded Bellanca monoplane Rosemarie, nearing their goal of shattering the existing world's record for sustained flying.

At nine a. m. (coast time) they had been in the air more than 52 hours and were separated from their objective by less than 20 hours.

The engine of their great red plane was droning lazily and carrying the craft on its circuitous course at a rate of about 60 miles per hour.

SAY CAR WAS LEASED TO BEN McKISSICK

Motion to stay the sale of a sedan seized in the transportation of liquor was made at court this morning. The General Motors Acceptance Company alleges that the car was leased by the Marino Motor Company to Ben McKissick and the contract taken over by the motors company. It is alleged that at the time the car was seized McKissick was back in his payments and that there is $420 due on the lease. Judge Hildebrand granted a rule and the case will be argued.

Apparently a padlock is a little hicky placed on the door to keep New York police from bothering the bootleggers inside.

September Brings Opening Of Oyster Bars With Rushing Business

Five-Cent Subway Fare Is Tammany's Biggest Vote Getter, Says Kinnaird

By CLARK KINNAIRD.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—News of New York in tabloid:

A few minutes before Michael Bernstein was to have appeared in Washington Heights court for a hearing in connection with the abduction of Caspar Holstein, Harlem negro sportsman his wife stumbled into the room crying hysterically that he had been "taken for a ride" (hurled into an auto and put to death later)....

Oyster bars are doing big business because the "r" months have begun. (One is not supposed to eat oysters prior to September—which may be another superstition.)....

Vincent Richards tennis champion and Karel Koseluh, Czecho-Slovakian player were freed in West Side court of charges of playing tennis on Sunday without a permit. An ancient law forbids "playing on Sunday, but exempts baseball.. ..

Undertakers ought not gouge, urges Commissioner Waynne of the department of health. He tells of cutting a $600 undertaking bill to $250—and declares the undertaker made a profit at that. (Tut, tut, Mr. Undertaker, this was in New York not your town.)....

With the change back to standard time from daylight saving on September 30, suburbanites are trying to remember the new train schedules...

Yes, visitors, the 5-cent fare still obtains in New York. It's Tammany's best local vote getter.

The usual big crowd is expected for the world series, with at least half a dozen new hotels in the Times Square district to help take care of it.

Tea rooms now are as crowded at 2 p. m. as at noon. It may be because there are more persons eating or everybody thinks she'll escape the ruch by waiting.

Movies holding out for runs include: "Mother Knows Best," "The Air Circus," Al Jolson in "The Singing Fool," "Lilac Time," "Submarine," "The Terror," "'Q' Ships," "Wings" (longest run), "White Shadows in the South Seas" and Emil Jannings in "The Patriot."

These pictures are more expensive than when they reach your town—which however, may be a long time off.

Legitimate shows may be seen at certain neighborhood theaters in New York, Brooklyn and Newark for much less money than on Broadway. The plays either already have been on Broadway and are on their way to "the road" or they may be on their way to Broadway suffering the pangs of first performances.

The Way OF THE World

By GROVE PATTERSON

SHOES

Chemists have found a way to measure the pliability of leather. So says the president of the American Leather Chemists Association. That will mean shock-absorbing shoes and more ease and comfort for the walker. All the walker will have to contend with then are his friends who insist on picking him up in their motor cars on the way to work.

FUNNY CUSTOM

A divorced Mohammedan woman can marry again if her previous husband consents. That gives the ex-husband the opportunity to play a rough joke on some other man.

QUAKES

California needn't feel worried. They hardly know what earthquakes are. Statistics show there is an average of from one to two earthquakes in Japan every day. No matter where you live you have to contend with nature. If the climate is just right you can be sure something else is just wrong.

HOW OLD?

It is said few people in India know how old they are. They have little interest in their own age or in that of others. In this respect India shows herself more progressive, more civilized than the western world. We pay a great deal of attention to age. In the far east they have learned that age is less important. The more we consider the spirit and the less we think of the body the more civilized we are. Age is a matter of the spirit, not a matter of the calendar.

PULPITS AND POLITICS

We may think what we will and vote as we like. We may even speak as we like. This includes ministers in their churches. The minister may discuss politics in his pulpit. Nobody should try to muzzle him or anybody else. The fact remains that the preacher who choose to make his pulpit a political forum hurts not only his own church but the church everywhere. When we speak of mixing the church and the state we are not fair when we limit our remarks to one denomination. If the Catholic church ought to keep out of politics, so ought the Baptist and the Methodist and all the others.

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle

Secret service operatives reporting to this department bring in some interesting reports over the week-end. As a result, this column is able to announce authentically that 1, there was considerable fog on the Youngstown road Sunday night, 2, the World Series will open on Thursday of this week, and 3, The News will show the returns as per usual, in front of The News office. These announcements are not copyrighted and can be used wholly or in part.

Everybody is organizing these days it seems, so that the constables of the county can't be criticized if they form an organization. The boys have their charter, legal 'n everything, and tonight in the Legion Home they get under way. Bill Reese, that staunch defender of law and order out in Neshannock township, denies that the slogan of the organization will be "Bigger And Better Badges."

Anyhow Bill's badge is large enough. The first night he had it and took it off his coat at home, one of his boys thought it was a new soup plate he had brought in.

And another thing. This is the first day of October, (see calendar for verification) and all of that homespun poetry about golden hedgerows, and frosted pumpkin vines can now be turned loose.

Also, plans for the community Hallowe'en celebration can be started any time. Henry Goldberg won't be here this year to handle the affair so its up to somebody else to take the lead. Applications will be received in written form, or in person.

This year it would be a smart idea, if there is to be any Hallowe'en celebration, to get the affair started at least a week before the night it will be held. While past committees have done wonders in a short time, still a couple of weeks start would help the thing along.

Since the paragraph about the I. Q. test appeared, several friends have volunteered information concerning Benet-Simons tests and Thorndyke tests. The idea of them it seems is to pick out a few things you know, and a few things you don't know and then dare you to make a perfect score.

Norman Nelson, who is by way of being something of a scientific shark himself says that in his opinion the Thorndyke test is one that no person in the world could pass perfectly. One of the test problems in it concerns Appreciation of Spanish Literature, while another goes into the method of determining stress and strain in bridge building.

In between these two no doubt there are many progressive steps. A bit on Mosaic Well Digging no doubt, with perhaps a dissertation on the Life and Habits of the Peruvian Spoon Bill Duck.

The, only way to get the real up and up, or the low down on these tests is to take one I reckon, and this will be done in the very near future. You'll be waiting for the result breathlessly I have no doubt.

Annual Arbor Day To Be October 26

Forests Are Important To Life Of People, Says Governor Fisher

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Oct. 1.—Governor John S. Fisher in a proclamation today designated October 26 as the annual fall arbor and bird day.

The governor pointed out that the forests were important to the life of the people of the commonwealth and as an attraction for bird life.

He called attention to the fact that the commonwealth owns one-tenth of the total forest area and that the forests are in better condition than ever before to give outdoor instruction and enjoyment to the people.

Motorcyclist Is Killed In Crash; Five Are Injured

TOWANDA, Pa., Oct. 1.—One man was killed instantly, another seriously injured and four persons were cut by flying glass when two motorcycles crashed into an automobile.

John Whitly, 22, of Estella, a village near here, was decapitated when his motorcycle ran head-on into the automobile driven by H. C. Down of Towanda.

Elmer Gleckner, 22, also of Estella, suffered a broken leg and internal injuries when his motorcycle, on which he was following Whitly, ploughed into the wrecked machines.

Down was accompanied in his automobile by his wife and W. A. Northrup and wife of Glenburn, near Scranton.
